

Art history tour in Florence – on the traces of “Il Pontormo”

Sunday, 4 October

Meeting point: 10.00 am, at the Baptistery (in front of the Duomo)

The tour will approximately last one hour.

Valerie Hayaert, President of the Alumni Association and a researcher in early modern art history will act as a guide in two churches where works of the tuscan artist Jacopo Carucci, called “Il Pontormo” (1494-1556) may be found:

- In the Church of San Michele Visdomini at the corner of via Bufalini, piazza Visdomini, there is a very interesting and puzzling Sacred Conversation, the Pala Pucci
- In the Capponi Chapel of Santa Felicita, The Deposition from the Cross

Explanations will be given in French; handouts will be in English/or French.
