

Job Market Results 2007 - 2008

Congratulations to our 2007-08 Job Market Candidates!

Name	Thesis Title Advisor	Fields of Interest	Placement
Itai Agur	Thesis Title: The Making of Globalization: Government Negotiations, Firm Decisions and Worker Expectations Advisor: Karl Schlag	international trade: trade negotiations - WTO; regional trade agreements. Firm-based trade theory - heterogeneous firms models	Researcher, Dutch Central Bank
Aurora Ascione	Thesis Title: Non-Price Competition and International Macroeconomics Supervisor: Morten Ravn	international macroeconomics, industrial organization and numerical methods	Economist, Office of Fair Trading, London
Patrick Eozenou	Thesis Title: Essays on Risk Sharing and Development Supervisor: Morten Ravn	development, risk sharing, applied econometrics, household economics	Postdoctoral Fellow, International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI), Washington DC
Renato Faccini	Thesis Title: Three Essays on Labor Markets and Labor Market Institutions Advisor: Salvador Ortigueira	macroeconomic theory, labor economics, international economics, numerical methods	Economist, Bank of England
Alain Gabler	Thesis Title: On the Macroeconomics of Firm Entry and Exit Advisors: Omar Licandro	Dynamic Stochastic General Equilibrium modelling, business cycle theory, growth theory	Tenure Track - Assistant Professor, Université Laval
Matthias Hertweck	Thesis Title: Matching in a DSGE Framework Supervisor: Morten Ravn	Dynamic Macroeconomics Labor Economics	Postdoctoral Position, University of Basel
Steven Poelhekke	Thesis Title: International and Urban Economics Advisor: Frederick van der Ploeg	applied macro and micro econometrics, urban economics, city growth, human capital, international economics, volatility, financial development, natural resource curse	Researcher, Dutch Central Bank

Katrin Rabitsch	Thesis Title: Essays in International Macroeconomics Advisor: Giancarlo Corsetti	open economy macroeconomics, international finance, macroeconomic theory, dynamic stochastic general equilibrium modelling and business cycles	(joint position) Assistant Professor, Central European University, and Researcher, National Bank of Hungary
Pontus Rendahl	Thesis Title: Essays in Recursive Macroeconomics Advisor: Morten Ravn	dynamic macroeconomic theory, repeated agency/recursive contracts, computational economics/numerical methods	Tenure Track - Assistant Professor, University of California, Davis
Javier Rivas	Thesis Title: Cooperation in Repeated Games, Bounded Rational Learning and The Adoption of Second-Best Technologies Advisor: Karl Schlag	bounded rationality, learning, microeconomic theory, game theory, social networks	Lecturer, University of Leicester
Riham Shendy	Thesis Title: Trade Reform in South Africa Advisor: Morten Ravn	development economics, international trade, applied econometrics (macro and micro)	Young Professional Program, World Bank
Carolina Villegas Sanchez	Thesis Title: International Capital Flows, Technology Spillovers and the Role of Local Credit Markets Advisor: Morten Ravn	international economics: international factor movements, multinational firms; development economics: finance and development; applied econometrics	Tenure Track - Assistant Professor, University of Houston
Christoph Winter	Thesis Title: Altruism, Education and Wealth Inequality Advisors: Morten Ravn	macroeconomic theory, dynamic stochastic general equilibrium models with heterogeneous agents, consumption, savings and inequality, economics of education	Oberassistent, University of Zurich
Michael Wycherley	Thesis Title: Macroeconomics Growth and Technology Adoption Advisors: Omar Licandro	macroeconomic theory, especially growth and development, technology adoption and intellectual property rights, dynamic general equilibrium models	Permanent Lectureship, Trinity College Dublin

Congratulation to Kristoffer Nimark, graduate of 2005, who will be going to CREI, Universitat Pompeu Fabra, in September!