

FIRST YEAR PRESENTATIONS

4-7 October 2010

The first year researchers' papers will be presented in a time slot of 1 h 15 minutes.

Each presentation should last 10 minutes.

The second part of the time will be dedicated to a general discussion

Monday, 4 October 2010

14.00-15.15 Chair: Researchers Representatives

Professors' presentation

15.30-17.00 Chair: Profs. Kiran Patel and Federico Romero

Gabriele Cappelli, Searching for a better understanding of growth and development. Italy: 1861 to the present days.

Frank Gerits, Marketing the Atlantic Alliance in Europe: Comparing NATO-propaganda with public diplomacy in Belgium, France and the United States (1950-1960s)

Giorgio Poti, The Impact of Wilsonianism on Western European Elites, 1918-1921. A Comparative Study of Selected French, German and Italian Cases.

Trond Ove Tøllefsen, The Inter-Allied Reparation Agency and the dismantlement policy in occupied Germany

Tuesday, 5 October 2010

9.00-10.15 Chair: Profs. Luca Molá and Martin Van Gelderen

Jonas Gerlings, The birth of the reformed soul out of the mystical practice of religion: A study in the constitution of early modern subjectivity analysed through Martin Luther's appropriation of mysticism

Kaarlo Johannes Havu, The influence of classical rhetoric on Juan Luis Vives's (1492-1540) political thinking

Hélène Soldini, Donato Giannotti et la question du républicanisme à Florence au XVIe siècle

10.30-11.45 Chair: Profs. Heinz-Gerhard Haupt and Pavel Kolář

Thomas Østergaard Wittendorff, Hannah Arendt's Political Concept of Forgiveness in Contexts

James White, Dostoevskii, anti-utopia and the morality of revolution in Russian political and literary debate between 1895 and 1914.

Karena Kalmbach, Chernobyl as a Transnational 'Lieu de Mémoire'

12.00-13.00 Chair: Profs. Luca Molá and Antonella Romano

Ana Belem Fernández Castro, Ius mercatorum: The Comparative Reconstruction of a Sixteenth-Century Transnational Legal Order

Katharina Kuffner, The State, Law and Economics. Reactionary Modernisation in Sixteenth-Century Spain

14.30-15.45 Chair: Profs. Giulia Calvi and Jorge Flores

Semih Çelik, Poverty and the Poor of Istanbul in the Eighteenth Century

Oliver Dunn, Smuggling, fraud and wartime trade from early modern London

Tomasz Grusiecki, Art Markets in the Seventeenth-Century Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth

16.00-17.00 Chair: Profs. Kiran Patel and Youssef Cassis

Marie Curie Fellows and Jean Monnet Fellows presentations

Natalia Maillard Álvarez (MCF), Books and readers between Italy and Spain

Niklas Jensen (MCF), Making Science in the Colony: Science, scientific networks and the Danish-Halle Mission in South India, 1730-1820

Magali Della Sudda (MCF), Gender, religion and politics. Transnational and comparative perspectives on catholic women's organisations in France and Italy during the pontificate of Pius XIth (1922-1939)

Jacob Weisdorf (JMF), Malthusian Progress

Philip Bajon (JMF), Votes and Vetoes. The Legacy of the Luxembourg Compromise 1966-1986

Emmanuel Berger (MCF), La suppression du juge d'instruction en France. Regards et perspectives historiques

Wednesday, 6 October 2010

9.00-10.15 Chair: Profs. Heinz-Gerhard Haupt and Martin Van Gelderen

Romain Bonnet, «Question agraire», violences socio-politiques et transformations sociales dans l'Europe méridionale en situation révolutionnaire. Essai d'histoire comparée: l'Italie du «biennio rosso» (1919-1921), la Deuxième République espagnole (1931-1939), le Portugal durant la «Révolution des œillets» (1974-1976)

Floris Daniel Knegt, A New Order for France and Europe? European thought and international contacts of the French extreme right 1933-1939

Jan-Hendrik Schulz, "The cooperation between the Western European urban guerilla groups Action Directe (AD) and Rote Armee Fraktion (RAF) fighting in the concept of an "antiimperialistic front", 1977-1987. A study on the phenomenon of terrorism as communication strategy"

10.30-11.45 Chair: Profs. Giulia Calvi and Luca Molá

Carolina Obradors, Citizenship and foreignness in Mediterranean Europe at the end of the Middle Ages. Integration, exclusion and protectionism in Barcelona in the fifteenth century.

Fatma Ozden Mercan, 'A Unity in Cultural Diversity?': Genoese-Ottoman Relations in Chios, Galata and Caffa (14th and 15th c.)

Tilmann Kulke, Akbars (1556-1606) view towards the West. A Contribution to an euro-asian connected history of early modern time

13.30-15.00 Chair: Profs. Youssef Cassis and Bartolomé Yun-Casalilla

Eoghan Moran, Radicalism and Restraint in the Development of Syndicalist Ideology, 1900-1939: A Comparative Study of France and Spain

Matti Oula Juhana La Mela, Understanding land, labour, money and knowledge: the concept of property in Finland and France in 1880-1910

Alan David Granadino González, Iberian roads to democracy. The influence of the European Community in Spanish and Portuguese transitions to democracy (1974-1986) from a comparative perspective

Petter Sandgren, The elite boarding schools and the field of power: social reproduction and the transnational spread of the British public school ideology to other parts of Europe during the period 1880-1980

15.15-17.00 Chair: Profs. Giovanni Federico and Steve Smith

Pol Dalmau Palet, Clientelism and construction of opinion in Nineteenth – twentieth century. Mediterranean Europe the Case of the family Godó and the Founding of La Vanguardia

Robrecht Declercq, Saxon fur traders and craftsmen, an occupational community on the move. A transnational perspective on immigrant entrepreneurship (1880-1950)

Laura Pozzi, Satire in the Late Imperial and Republican China (1890s-1950): an Historical Analysis of Social and Political Development in China through its Satirical Production

Marii Väljataga, A Past Revived: Monuments to the Estonian War of Independence (1918-1920) in contemporary Estonian identity-building, placed in a comparative perspective with interwar monuments in Italy

Thursday, 7 October 2010

9.00-10.15 Chair: Profs. Jorge Flores and Bartolomé Yun-Casalilla

Jesús Bohorquez Barrera, Des marchés Atlantiques sous des gouvernements impériaux : l'économie politique et les changements institutionnels dans les empires espagnol et portugais (1780-1816)

Brian Kjær Olesen, Liberty, Monarchy, and the Common Good: Political Languages and the Concept of Liberty in Eighteenth-Century Scandinavia

Moritz Von Brescius, From Ancient Egypt to the New World – Science and Colonialism in Alexander von Humboldt's American Expedition and the French Egyptian Campaign

10.30-12.30 Chair: Profs. Steve Smith and Pavel Kolář

Max Weber Fellows presentations

Cécile d'Albis, Comparative studies of civico-religious experiences in early modern Europe

Elise Dermineur, Rural communities, gender and women's history, religion,

Mehmet Dosemeci, European Unification, Modern Turkish History, Modern European History, Intellectual History

Sarah Cordelia Easterby-Smith, Cultural and social history of science in eighteenth century Britain and France. Trans-national and connected history

Catherine Fletcher, Political, social and cultural history of early modern Europe, in particular questions of diplomacy and 'the nation'. The presentation of history in the popular media and at cultural heritage sites in the twenty-first century

Claudia Anna Gazzini, History and Politics of the Middle East and North Africa, EU policy in the MENA region, Islamic Law, Imperialism, social and legal history.

Ana Carolina Hosne, Society of Jesus- Modern History- Colonial Latin American History- late Ming China- Matteo Ricci-José de Acosta

Christian Kühner, Early Modern European History, French History, German History, Cultural History, History of the nobility, History of friendship and patronage, History of courts, History of religion

Nathan Marcus, Modern European History, Financial History

Uditi Sen, History, Trans-national Migration, Refugee Studies, Memory, Oral History

Anne-Isabelle Richard-Picchi, Colonialism and the European movement in France and the Netherlands, 1925-1936

Dean Vuletic, History of modern Europe, especially East Central Europe Culture, history and politics of the former Yugoslavia and its successor states; History of the Cold War, History of popular culture, Transnational history