

Emotions in History

Department of History & Civilization, European University Institute
Villa Schifanoia, Sala Belvedere, Florence
May 28, 2010

Organized by Prof. Giulia Calvi (History, EUI) and Prof. Alon Confino (History, University of Virginia)

9:00 Opening Remarks, Giulia Calvi (EUI)

9:15 Lyndal Roper (Balliol College, University of Oxford), Envy

10:15 Serena Ferente (King's College London, Harvard, Villa I Tatti) Passions, Discord and the Community in Late Medieval Italy

11:15-11:30 Coffee break

11:30 Alon Confino (University of Virginia), The Third Reich of Emotions

12:30-14.00 Lunch

14:00 Alberto Banti (University of Pisa), Fear, Grief and Mourning in the Nationalist Discourse

15:00 Dario Miccoli (EUI), Archives of Feelings: The Jews in Modern Egypt between Genealogy, History, and Literature (1930-1950)

16:00 Coffee break

16:15 Katharina Stornig (EUI), Migrating Communities as Emotional Communities

17:15 Ute Frevert (Max Planck Institute, Berlin), Rage and Honor: A Gendered perspective

18:15-19:00 Final discussion: Giulia Calvi (EUI), Moderator

20:00 Dinner