

Ph.D. / LL.M. in Law

Outstanding research environment for scholars from all over Europe and beyond

Florence, Italy

- Europe's leading institution for postgraduate studies in Law
- Four-year funded Ph.D. degree
- One-year LL.M. degree
- Postdoctoral fellowships
- Focus on European legal institutions and development of European Law
- Law studied in social, cultural, political and economic context
- Private, Public, National, Comparative and International Law, Legal Theory and Philosophy of Law
- First-class library and data access
- International faculty, cosmopolitan environment, cultural and linguistic diversity

International and European Law are the strongest elements in the Department's programme, which has long offered specialisations in Human Rights Protection Law, Social Law, Competition Law, International Economic and Environmental Law, and the impact of globalisation on European and national legal systems and constitutional structures.

Faculty from September 2012

Giuliano Amato	Emeritus Professor
Loïc Azoulay	European Union Law
Nehal Bhuta	International Law
Fabrizio Cafaggi	Comparative Law
Marise Cremona	European Law
Claire Kilpatrick	International and European Labour and Social Law
Petros Mavroidis	Global and Regional Economic Law
Hans-W. Micklitz	Economic Law
Giorgio Monti	Competition Law
Dennis Patterson	Legal Theory and Legal Philosophy
Ernst-Ulrich Petersmann	Emeritus Professor
Luís Miguel Poiares Maduro	European Law
Ruth Rubio Marin	Constitutional Law
Giovanni Sartor	Legal Informatics and Legal Theory
Martin Scheinin	Public International Law

Deadline for applications: 31 January 2012

