

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Irit Samet

D.Phil (Oxon), LL.B., MA, Advocate

King's College, London

Email: irit.samet@kcl.ac.uk

Qualifications:

2000-2005: D.Phil - Oxford University (Somerville), Supervisor: Prof. Josef Raz (Balliol).

2001: MA in Philosophy at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem (Grade point average A)

1998: Member of the Israeli Bar.

1997: LLB in Law and English Literature at Bar Ilan University, with distinction: Magna Cum Laude

Awards and distinctions:

2002: 'Visiting research scholar' in the law faculty at Columbia University, New York. I was awarded a scholarship by the Law Faculty of Columbia University in payment of my academic fees and living expenses for the duration of my research term in New York.

2002-2005: Ruth Adler Senior Graduate Scholar (for three years) at Somerville College

- 2001: Rothschild scholarship
- 1996: Dean's list (top 3% of the Law Faculty)
- 1994: Wolfson's Prize for Excellence in Academic Achievements in Law

Publications

'Satanic Motivations', The Journal of Value Inquiry 41 (2007), p.77-94

'Taking Evil Seriously' Oxford journal of Legal Studies 27 (2007) p. 741-756

'Guarding the Fiduciary's Conscience: A Justification of a Stringent Profit-Stripping Rule.'

(forthcoming) 29 Oxford journal of Legal Studies (2008)

Under Review: 'The form of Evil'; 'Aquinas on bad actions'.

Conference Presentations (peer-reviewed) and Lectures

2003: 'Satanic Motivations' in 'Perspectives on Evil and Human Wickedness', Vienna, Austria.

2006: 'The Form of evil' in Metafisica, Rome, Italy.

2007: 'Guarding the Fiduciary's Conscience' in the legal Research Conference, University College, Dublin, Ireland.

'The role of Equity in English Property Law' in the Faculty of Law at the Freie Universität, Berlin.

'Introduction to Equity' at the centre for comparative law in the University of Vienna.

- 2008: 'Evil as Privation' in 'Ethical theory and Moral Practice' – Vrije Universitat, Amsterdam, Netherlands.
- 'The Fiduciary's Conscience: A Justification of Stringent Profit-stripping' forthcoming in the International Association for Legal and Social Philosophy Conference– University of Edinburgh, Scotland.

Teaching and work experience

- 2008: Lecturer in Law King's College, London (tenure). Giving lectures and seminars on The Law of Trusts and Equitable Remedies.
- 2007- 2008: Lecturer in Law, Essex University (tenure). Course convenor: Equity & Trusts (Undergraduate core course). Philosophical Foundations of Human Rights (MA course).
- 2005-2007: Law lecturer in Mansfield College teaching Land Law, Trusts and Jurisprudence.
- Visiting lecturer at Kings College, teaching two seminars in Property Law
- 2004-2005: Law lecturer at Keble College, teaching Land Law, Jurisprudence and Trusts.
- 2003-2004: Law lecturer at Exeter College, teaching Introduction to Law and Land law. Tutor for exchange students, teaching Jurisprudence
- 1999-2000: Teaching assistant to Professor Andrei Marmor in Tel-Aviv University Law School. I was worked on the teaching team of two courses: foundation course for undergraduates on Political Theory, and the foundation course on contemporary Legal Theory for graduates.

- 1997-1998: Teaching Assistant in the foundation course in Public International Law at Bar-Ilan University.
- 1997-1998: Training for the Israeli Bar in the law offices of Prof. J. Gross & Co. in Tel-Aviv.
- 1996-1997: Research assistant to Professor David Schwarz of Bar Ilan in a research project on Israeli private law.

References

Professor Joseph Raz (Thesis Supervisor)
Balliol College
Oxford, OX1 3BJ
UK
Email: joseph.raz@balliol.ox.ac.uk
Phone: +44 1865 277777

Professor John Gardner (Thesis Examiner)
University College
Oxford, OX1 4BH
UK
Email: john.gardner@univ.ox.ac.uk
Phone: +44 1865 276602