[Annex 1] MRM Participation and Copyright Agreement

Copyright

By submitting the paper, participants automatically declare that:

- the paper has not been published;
- the paper has not been accepted for publication and will not be submitted for publication anywhere before the MRM takes place;
- the author is the copyright holder and is informed of, and has fulfilled, any requirements regarding the rights of third parties;
- the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies (RSCAS) has been granted permission to publish and distribute the paper in the form submitted for the MRM. The same or any other version of the paper can be submitted by the author for publication elsewhere without restrictions after the MRM. In case of a co-organised workshop, the co-organising partner institution is granted the same rights as the RSCAS.

Paper protection and distribution

- All papers will be available on a secure online database;
- All papers will state the name of the copyright holder(s), and will also state that no quotation or citation is allowed, unless previous written authorisation is obtained from the author(s);
- Papers will be made available to all participants in electronic form only, on the web (password protected).

Participants should bring all the papers for their workshop to the MRM. Photocopies will not be supplied and participants wishing to make any photocopies will be charged a fee.

Reference in other publication(s)

The following citation format should be used for papers from the MRM published either in its original or in a revised form after the MRM (for all workshops, except for the co-organised ones):
