

The aim of the European University Institute shall be to contribute, by its activities in the fields of higher education and research, to the development of the cultural and scientific heritage of Europe... This aim shall be pursued through teaching and research at the highest university level... the Institute shall develop interdisciplinary research programmes on the major issues confronting contemporary European society, including matters relating to the construction of Europe.

-Art. 2 of the Convention setting up a European University Institute

The European University Institute is looking for candidates with a distinguished record of scholarly publications and experience in postgraduate teaching and doctoral supervision, to fill

A Chair in Macroeconomics (EC07)

The Department of Economics invites applications for a Chair in Macroeconomics. To fulfil the needs of the Department's structured PhD programme, candidates must have experience in graduate-level formal instruction and doctoral supervision as well as a strong academic publication record.

Candidates should have an excellent research record in macroeconomics. All fields will be considered, for example, monetary policy, fiscal policy, growth, firms' dynamics, households' dynamics, search and matching. The successful candidate will teach in the macroeconomics sequence of the Department.

The Department promotes gender equality and cultural diversity. Contracts are for five years, renewable for a further three years.

Interested applicants should contact Dr. Andreas Frijdal, the Director of the Academic Service, in order to receive an application and information pack.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 10 February 2012

Tel.: +39-055-4685.332

Fax: +39-055-4685.444

E-mail: applypro@eui.eu

Internet: http://www.eui.eu

European University Institute

Via dei Roccettini 9

I-50014 San Domenico di Fiesole, ITALY