the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies

The European University Institute is looking for candidates with a distinguished record of scholarly publications and experience in postgraduate teaching and doctoral supervision, to fill

A Joint Chair in European Public Policy (SPS-RSC1)

The Department of Political and Social Sciences and the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies seek candidates with expertise in the field of European public policy. Experts in all aspects of the policies of the European Union and its Member States will be actively considered. An interest in the interaction between EU integration and its consequences in the domestic policies of the Member States is particularly welcome. The successful candidate will have a strong record of empirical research, an interest in theory and research methods (qualitative and/or quantitative), and a commitment to excellence in postgraduate teaching. The Chair will be held jointly in the Department and the Centre.

The contract is for five years, renewable for a further three years. The Institute is an equal-opportunity employer.

Interested applicants should consult www.eui.eu/vacancies for further details.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 2 September 2013
