

Chair in Private Law and Market Regulation

Department of Law

The European University Institute is looking for candidates with a distinguished record of scholarly publications and experience in postgraduate teaching and doctoral supervision, to fill a

Chair in Private Law and Market Regulation (LAW5)

The Law Department calls for applications for a Chair in Private Law and Market Regulation. Candidates should be engaged in scholarship relating to private law, particularly in a European context, and in relation to its role in constituting and regulating markets in the public interest. Expertise in the transnational regulation of banking, finance and capital markets or the digitization of the economy and society would be welcome. Candidates should be prepared to participate in inter-disciplinary research on the impact of European integration, globalisation and transnational legal developments, and prepared to supervise theses across a wide range of themes of transnational and comparative private and economic law.

The EUI is an equal opportunities employer and takes into account the importance of balance in gender, geographical and minority representation.

Interested applicants should consult www.eui.eu/vacancies for further particulars.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 16 April 2018.

CONTACTS

Academic Service
Veerle Deckmyn, Director
Tel.: +39 055 4685 359
E-mail: applypro@eui.eu
Internet: <http://www.eui.eu>
European University Institute
Via dei Roccettini 9
I-50014 San Domenico di Fiesole
ITALY

The aim of the European University Institute shall be to contribute, by its activities in the fields of higher education and research, to the development of the cultural and scientific heritage of Europe... This aim shall be pursued through teaching and research at the highest university level..., the Institute shall develop interdisciplinary research programmes on the major issues confronting contemporary European society, including matters relating to the construction of Europe.

-Art. 2 of the Convention setting up a European University Institute