

FILMING, BROADCASTING AND RECORDING NOTICE

When you attend an event at the European University Institute (EUI), photography, audio or video recording and live broadcasting/web streaming may occur. Recorded material may also be published. The EUI will use this material for the sole purpose of reporting on or promoting of its activities and in strict compliance with data protection regulations in force at the EUI.

The EUI does not assume any liability in connection with the above. If you wish that your image or voice is not recorded, please contact the conference organisers who will accommodate your needs, if possible.

For more information on privacy rights and personal data protection at the EUI, please contact the organiser of the event.