

Academy of European Law
Session on Human Rights Law
21 June - 2 July 1999

Distinguished Lecture

Is the Human Rights Regime Special in International Law?

Pieter van Dijk, Raad van State, The Hague

General Course

A Comprehensive Human Rights System

David Harris, Professor of Public International Law, University of Nottingham

Specialized Courses

The International Law Framework of Human Rights

Reflections on 30 Years of International Human Rights Law

Richard Bilder, Professor of Law, University of Wisconsin

What Role Should Private International Law Have in Terms of Human Rights?

Andrew Byrnes, Professor of Law, University of Hong Kong

Le rapport entre le droit de l'homme et la paix et la sécurité internationales en droit international

Olivier Corten, Maître de conférences, Université Libre de Bruxelles, Centre de droit international

Judicial Activism versus Judicial Restraint in the Interpretation of Human Rights Norms

Craig Scott, Associate Professor of Law, University of Toronto

Erosion of the Private-Public Divide and the Growth of the Human Rights Movement

Henry Steiner, Jeremiah Smith Professor of Law and Director of Law School Human Rights Program, Harvard University

Droit de l'homme et souveraineté de l'Etat : Ces ont-elles été substantiellement redéfinies

Hélène Ruiz Fabri, Professor of Law, University of Paris I