

Academy of European Law
Session on the Law of the European Union
5 July - 16 July 1999

Distinguished Lecture

Jean-Victor Louis, Honorary Legal Adviser, Banque Nationale de Belgique; Professor of law, Université libre de Bruxelles and European University Institute

General Course

Re-thinking the Foundations of European Law

Joseph H. H. Weiler, Manley Hudson Professor of Law and Jean Monnet Chair, Harvard Law School; Co-director, Academy of European Law, EUI

Specialized Courses

The European Court of Justice

Adjudicating European Integration and its Limits: Examining the Role of National Courts and the ECJ

Matias Kumm, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Law, Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University; S.J.D. candidate, Harvard Law School

The Jurisdiction of the European Court of Justice Reconsidered

Paul P. Craig, Professor of Law, Worcester College, University of Oxford

Adjudicating European Integration and its Limits: Examining the Role of National Courts and the ECJ

Matias Kumm, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Law, Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University

Interpretation, Integrity and Integration in the Jurisprudence of the ECJ

Neil MacCormick, Professor of Law, University of Edinburgh
Joxerramon Bengoetxea, Professor of Law, Universidad del País Vasco

Legal Sociology of the European Court of Justice

Harm Schepel, Zentrum für Europäische Rechtspolitik, University of Bremen; Université Libre de Bruxelles

Professor Erhard Blankenburg, Professor of Law, Vrije Universiteit van Amsterdam

Gender Perspectives

Jo Shaw, Professor of European Law, Centre for the Study of Law in Europe, Department of Law, University of Leeds

The Courses are subsequently published in an annual publication
Collected Courses of the Academy of European Law (AEL), by Oxford University Press