

Academy of European Law
Session on the Law of the European Union
4 July – 15 July 2005

Distinguished Lecture

The European Constitutional Treaty: An Incomplete Constitution?

Antonio Vitorino, Former European Commissioner for Justice and Home Affairs; Professor, Lisbon Law School

General Course

EU Administrative Law: Central Themes and Emerging Issues

Paul Craig, Professor of English Law, St. John's College, Oxford

Specialized Courses

EU Law: Revisiting the Fundamentals in the Light of the New Constitution

Where Social Policy Meets the Internal Market: A New Balance?

Catherine Barnard, Senior Lecturer in Law, University of Cambridge,
Jean Monnet Chair of European Law, Fellow of Trinity College,
Cambridge

Supremacy and Direct Effect under the New Constitution

Sacha Prechal, Professor of International and European Institutional Law, Europa Institute, University of Utrecht

Fundamental Rights in the New Union

Andrew Williams, Lecturer in Law, University of Warwick

The Union's External Action under the New Constitution

Enzo Cannizzaro, Professor of Law, University of Macerata

The Democratic Deficit Revisited

Paul Magnette, Professor and Director of the Institute for European Studies, Université libre de Bruxelles

The Area of Freedom, Security and Justice under the New Constitution

Dora Kostakopoulou, Reader in European Law and Integration,
University of Manchester