

ACADEMY OF EUROPEAN LAW

Session on the Law of the European Union

4 – 15 July 2011

Distinguished Lecture

Sacha Prechal, Judge at the Court of Justice of the European Union

General Course

The Limits of European Constitutional Law

Franz Mayer, Professor of Public Law and European Law, University of Bielefeld

Special Lecture

The Constitutionalization of Tort Law in Europe: Implicit, Explicit or Strategic?

Giovanni Comandé, Professor of Private Comparative Law, Scuola Superiore S. Anna, Pisa

Specialized Courses: The Constitutionalization of European Private Law

Employment and Non-discrimination Law

Mark Bell, Professor of Law, Centre for European Law and Integration, School of Law, University of Leicester

Fundamental Rights and Financial Services in European Private Law

Olha O. Cherednychenko, Senior Lecturer in Private Law, Centre for Law and Governance, VU University Amsterdam

Personal Guarantees of Consumers and European Fundamental Rights

Aurelia Ciacchi, Professor of Law and Academic Director of the Groningen Centre for Law and Governance, University of Groningen

On the (In)compatibility of Human Rights Discourse and Private Law

Hugh Collins, Professor of English Law, London School of Economics

Intellectual Property and European Fundamental Rights

Christine Godt, Jean Monnet Chair for European and International Economic Law, Private Law; Director of Hanse Law School, University of Oldenburg

Fundamental Rights and Contract Law

Chantal Mak, Associate Professor of Private Law, Centre for the Study of European Contract Law, University of Amsterdam