

Academy of European Law
Session on Human Rights Law
15 – 26 June 2009

Distinguished Lecture

Dinah Shelton, Manatt/Ahn Professor of International Law, The George Washington University Law School

General Course

Towards a World Court of Human Rights?

Martin Scheinin, Professor of Public International Law, European University Institute, Florence

Specialized Courses: The UN Security Council and Human Rights

The Security Council as Promoter and Protector of Human Rights

Daphna Shraga, Principal Legal Officer, Office of the Legal Counsel, Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations

The Role for Human Rights in the Decision-making Process of the Security Council

Bardo Fassbender, Universitaet der Bundeswehr, Munich

Reviewing Security Council Measures in the Light of International Human Rights Principles

Salvatore Zappalà, Professor of International Law, University of Catania

The Security Council as Enforcer of Human Rights

Vera Gowlland-Debbas, Professor of Public International Law, Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva

Security Council Targeted Sanctions and Human Rights

Annalisa Ciampi, Professor of EU Law and International Law, University of Verona and University of Florence; Member of the European Committee of Social Rights

Human Rights Considerations in the Enforcement of Security Council Sanctions in the EU Legal Order

Erika De Wet, Professor of International Constitutional Law, University of Amsterdam