

Third Term Courses 2008-2009

14 April - 25 May

Advanced Block 2

Econometrics or Macroeconomics

Jerome Adda, UCL (half-credit course) - Topics in Dynamic Labor (with a focus on dynamic models), 11 May, 12 May, 13 May, 14 May, 15 May

Econometrics or Microeconomics

Luigi Guiso - Topics in Applied Economics and Finance

Macroeconomics

Omar Licandro - Growth Theory

Arpad Abraham, University of Rochester (half-credit course) - Topics in Macroeconomic Applications of Dynamic Contracting, 13 May, 15 May, 19 May, 20 May and 21 May

Microeconomics

Fernando Vega-Redondo- Complex Social Networks

Piero Gottardi - Topics on Information and Markets

Optional courses

Preston McAfee, California Institute of Technology (full-credit course) - Lectures on Pricing.
May/June 2009

Mark Armstrong, University College London (half-credit course) - Regulation of Firms with Market
Power, 21 April, 28 April, 5 May, 12 May and 19 May

Seminars

Nicola Pavoni, UCL-IFS, Seminars on Recursive contracts and the optimal design of unemployment compensation and welfare schemes, 15 April, 16 April, 20 April, 21 April and 23 April