

Fall Term 2010/2011

Thesis Writing Seminar

Organised by Profs. G. Calvi and B. Yun-Casalilla

Usually on Wednesday 17.00-19.00 – Triaria

14 October

Cristiano Zanetti

Iannello Torriani. La cultura scientifica del XVI secolo fra Italia e Spagna.

27 October

Alejandro García Montón

Handling the tension between sources and methodology: archives, "transnational" research, and narrative strategies

2- 3 November

Workshop on

"Globalization and De-Globalization.

Transnational Perspective of Europe in the World History"

In collaboration with Princeton University

10 November

Sandra Hagman

"Forbidden Desire" -Controlling same-sex sexuality as a crime in Finland 1894-1970, 1st chapter - period 1894-1924

Marta Cunat Romero

Writing a liberal doctor's biography

17 November

Kenneth Pomeranz

Max Weber Lecture

24 November

Jens Wegener

Transatlantic Elite Sociability in the Inter war period

Sarah Verhaegen

Early modern noblemen and the cross border use of communication media

1 December

Mariana Labarca

The profligate: adolescent, middle aged and old men interdicted in 18th century Florence

Danielle McCormack

The “English in Ireland”? An experiment in identity creation (Draft first chapter)

8 December

Maria Halle

Ideas of women’s market oriented work and consumption in the 18th century patriotic societies in Denmark-Norway

Hanne Østhus

The language of subjugation in 18th century Norway. Elite views on work.