Farewell Workshop for Jaap Dronkers

(November 11, 2009, EUI, Emeroteca)
Contact: liz.webb@eui.eu

Jaap Dronkers is leaving the EUI at the end of this month to go back to the Netherlands where he will be based at Maastricht University. In order to honor Jaap for his academic work and for his spirited contributions to the EUI, we are organizing a Farewell Workshop. It ranges across four areas at the center of Jaap’s intellectual interests, with presentations by his colleagues and students and – as befits his style – his comments to each of them.

10:00-10:30 Welcome (Yves Mény)
   Introduction (Peter Mair / Martin Kohli)

10:30-12:00 Education
   Chair: Martin Kohli
   Fabrizio Bernardi: Education and Divorce: Exploring Dynamics and Selection Bias Issues.
   Stan van Alphen: The Educational Quality of Early School Leavers and the Cross-National Variation of Their Income Disadvantage.

12:00-13:00 Lunch in the Mensa

13:00-14:30 Family
   Chair: Fabrizio Bernardi
   Raya Muttarak: Any benefits from growing up in an interethnic family? Evidence from health access and cognitive development.
   Martin Kohli: Are childless people egoists?

15:00-16:30 Migration
   Chair: Mark Franklin
   Bram Lancee: The Economic Returns of Bonding and Bridging Social Capital for Immigrant Men in Germany.
   Rainer Bauböck: Does citizenship make a difference? Empirical and normative reflections on immigrant integration and naturalization. Continued .../...
17:00-18:30 Policies & Politics
Chair: Rainer Bauböck

Maria Vaalavuo: Who benefits from higher education?

Mark Franklin: The British Electoral System as Russian Roulette: How Stability and Accountability Have Metamorphosed into Immobility and Landslides.

18:30 Drinks (Refectory)

20:00 Dinner (Fiesole, La Reggia Degli Etruschi)

Each block will consist of two presentations of up to 20 minutes each, followed by comments by Jaap of about 5-10 minutes each, followed by a general discussion.