	Deutsche Bundesstiftung Umwelt (DBU, Osnabrück) – Topics related to Environmental Protection or Nature Conservation (fellowship) Master's graduates and doctoral students who live in Ukraine or who have fled the country are eligible to apply. Ukrainian citizenship is a central requirement. The studies must have been completed with a good or very good degree (Master's, Magister, Diplom) and should not have taken place more than five years ago. The fellowship is not intended for persons who wish to pursue a doctoral thesis (duration 24 to 36 months) or studies at a German university. The DBU welcomes applications from all disciplines, provided they wish to work on a topic related to environmental protection or nature conservation. The amount of the fellowship is € 1.250 per month. The fellowship is tax- and social security-free. In addition, the DBU covers the costs of health, accident and liability insurance as well as travel costs to Germany. The DBU also supports German courses in Germany and invites to seminars, workshops and events. Requirements: Good knowledge of English and/or German.
