12th Max Weber June Conference: States, Societies and Crises across Time and Space
#MWFJune2018

13-15 June 2018, Badia Fiesolana, San Domenico di Fiesole

Each year, the Max Weber June Conference presents an opportunity to enhance academic exchange and collaboration between different generations of fellows. At a time of perceived global upheaval and crisis, we seek to bring together an eclectic group of scholars to discuss some of the major transformations that states and societies have undergone across time and space. The aim is to develop multidisciplinary perspectives on key current, past and likely future challenges faced by local, regional, national and transnational communities. These include, but are not limited to, issues related to income, employment, markets, finance, trade, education, health, mobility, migration, security, gender, sexuality, ethnicity, race, citizenship, religion, the workplace and the environment.

We invite applications for the 2018 June Conference from current and former Max Weber Fellows as well as from current Jean Monnet and Marie Skłodowska-Curie Fellows at the EUI or at other institutions.

We encourage submissions – theoretical, empirical and methodological – from scholars across the social sciences, humanities and law.

Conference participants are cordially invited to attend the EUI’s June Ball on the last day of the conference.

Submissions

We accept three types of submission:

a) Regular presentations: a 10-15 minute oral presentation

b) Poster presentations: a poster to be displayed in the Badia’s Lower Loggia: participants can view it and discuss it with the presenter during the first lunch break of the Conference

c) Panel proposals: 3-5 regular presentations on a common theme

Pre-circulation of papers among panel members is voluntary.
Application

Please complete the submission form and include an abstract of up to 250 words per presentation (including 4-5 keywords).

Please email the submission form to MWP-June-Conference [at] eui.eu.
Deadline: Thursday, 15 March 2018

Funding for Max Weber Programme alumni

The Max Weber Programme can cover accommodation for up to 4 nights during the conference, up to €250.00 for flights within Europe and up to €400.00 for flights outside of Europe for former Max Weber Fellows.
