

Multidisciplinary Research Workshop, Max Weber Programme
Organisers: Marina Aksenova & Daniel Lee

History on Trial: Bringing Former Nazis to Court in the Twenty First Century

7 May 2012, Conference Room, Villa la Fonte 9.30-17.00

9.30 - Welcome

9.35 -11.00 - Panel I

From Nuremberg to the mid-1960s

Chair – Jenny Simon

Devin Pendas (Boston College) – ‘Nuremberg, Ulm, Frankfurt: The Development of Nazi Trials in Postwar Germany, 1945-1965’

Discussant – Alexandre Skander Galand

11.00 – 11.30: COFFEE BREAK

11.30 – 13.00 - Panel II

Development of the Trials into the 1990s – France: A Case Study of One Nation

Chair – Isabelle Guinaudeau

Richard Golsan (Texas A&M) – ‘Memories Corruptions: Anachronism, the Law in History in France’s Trials for Crimes against Humanity’

Discussant – Daniel Lee

13.00 – 14 .00: LUNCH

14.00 – 15.30 - Panel III

‘Delayed Justice’: Nuremberg Legacy in Criminal and Civil Law

Chair – Cornelius Wiesener

Leora Bilsky (Tel Aviv University) - ‘From Nuremberg to Transnational Holocaust Litigation: The Perplexities of Judging the Business Corporation’

Discussant – Marina Aksenova

15.30-15.45: BREAK

15.45 – 17.00 – Panel IV

Final Remarks

Chair – Sheila Neder Cerezetti

Giorgio Sacerdoti (Università Bocconi) – Closing Comments

Open Forum