

MWP Multidisciplinary Research Workshop

Interrogating the Idea of Europe: Views from North Africa

Workshop One: Circulation, Contact and Conflict before the 20th Century 21 January 2016 14:00-17:30, Badia, Emeroteca

Discussant: Ann Thomson

Chair: Muriam Haleh Davis

- 14:00 – 15:30 Panel One: Managing Systems of Inclusion and Exclusion

14:00 – 14:30 Cecilia Tarruell, EUI, “Addressing the Catholic King from North Africa: Petitions from Muslim and Jewish Converts and their Rhetoric (16th-17th Centuries)”

14:30 – 15:00 Arthur Asseraf, Oxford University, “Don Quixote de Guelma: Masa'ud Jabari and the Manipulation of European Rivalry in Algeria, 1881”

15:00 – 15:30 – Commentary and Discussion

15:30 – 16:00 – Coffee Break

- 16:00 – 17:30 Panel Two: Legal Structures and Regimes of Legitimation

16:00 – 16:30 Nouredine Amara, Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, “Petitions to the State between Legitimation and Restriction: Algerians and their Nationality in International Relations in the Mid-19th Century”

16:30 – 17:00 M'hamed Oualdi, Princeton University, "Excluded from European Debates on Norms and Values? North-Africans in-between 1860s Empires"

17:00 – 17:30 – Commentary and Discussion