

European University
Institute

MAX WEBER
PROGRAMME
FOR POSTDOCTORAL
STUDIES

DEPARTMENT
OF HISTORY
AND CIVILIZATION

DEPARTMENT
OF LAW

B—S—R
BRITISH SCHOOL
AT ROME

Frontiers, foreigners and legal frameworks

A one-day workshop at the European University Institute, Tuesday 21 June 2016

Badia Fiesolana, Max Weber Common Room

9am Welcome/opening remarks

Ann Thomson (History, EUI)

9.15am Panel 1:

Péter Szigeti (Max Weber Fellow, Law, EUI), 'The passport as a legal document'

Maria Adele Carrai (Max Weber Fellow, Law, EUI), 'National boundaries and Chinese sacred geography, 1830–1870'

Cynthia Salloum (Max Weber Fellow, Social and Political Sciences, EUI), 'The porosity of borders: reassessing national boundaries from periphery to centre. The case of the Triborder (Brazil, Paraguay, Argentina)'

Chair/Discussant: Deborah Russo (Law, Università di Firenze)

11am Coffee break

11.30am Keynote talk 1:

Renaud Morieux (History, University of Cambridge), 'Labelling the prisoner of war: categorization and international law (late 17th–early 19th century)'

Chair: Christopher Smith (British School at Rome)

Discussant: Pieter Judson (History, EUI)

1pm Lunch

2.30pm Panel 2:

Ingrid Houssaye Michienzi (postdoctoral fellow, Harvard Villa I Tatti), “Nationality” as a strategy: merchant tricks and identity games in the Early Modern Mediterranean’

Cecilia Tarruell (Max Weber Fellow, History, EUI), ‘Struggling with foreigners at the court of Madrid (16th–17th century): Greeks, Armenians and “Turks” converted to Catholicism’

Simon Macdonald (Max Weber Fellow, History, EUI), ‘The internment of British and Irish expatriates in Paris during the French revolutionary Terror’

Joshua Ehrlich (PhD Candidate, History, Harvard University), ‘The East India Company’s colleges and the frontiers of politics’

Chair: Stéphane Van Damme (History, EUI)

Discussant: Regina Grafe (History, EUI)

4.45pm Coffee break

5.30pm Keynote talk 2 (in the framework of the History Department Colloquium series):

Tamar Herzog (History/Law, Harvard University), ‘Identifying individuals and defining borders from a legal-historical perspective: what we remember and what we forget’

Chair: Luca Molà (History, EUI)

Discussant: Giuseppe Marocci (History, Università degli Studi della Tuscia)

8pm Dinner (for participants)

Everybody is welcome to attend but please register with Rebecca Ryder (rebecca.ryder@eui.eu)