

Jean Monnet Fellows, Max Weber Fellows & Marie Skłodowska Curie Fellows - Academic year 2018/2019

JEAN MONNET FELLOWS

Enrico Berbenni, Catholic University Milan, The Italian Banking Expansion in North Africa (late 19th century – 1945)

Nicholas Dines, EUI, Rethinking Cultural Pluralism from the Global South: Diversity management regimes in Rabat/Casablanca and Cape Town

Kirsty Hughes, University of Cambridge, The Human Rights of Migrants: EU nationals in the EU post-Brexit

Olga Bertelsen, Harvard University, The Russian Security Services and US National Security

Michael Driessen, John Cabot University, The Global Politics of Interreligious Dialogue

Onur Tas, TOBB University Ankara, How Efficient is EU Public Procurement? Analysis of competition and collusion

Cosimo Beverelli, World Trade Organization, Global Value Chains and Labour Market Polarization

Mette Eilstrup-Sangiovanni, University of Cambridge, Institutional Design and Political Dynamics of Trans-Governmental Networks

Dimiter Toshkov, Leiden University, Does Immigration from Eastern Europe Fuel Euroscepticism?

Jasper Chalcraft, EUI, Governing Heritage and Making Minorities: Transnational uses of difficult and endangered heritage

Mark Galeotti, Institute for International Relations Prague, Governance as Battlefield and Opportunity: The EU and Russia's active measures challenge

MAX WEBER FELLOWS

Silvia D'Amato, James Madison University, A Perfect Storm? Transnational terrorism and contradictory dynamics in European counterterrorism cooperation

Anna Knaps, EUI, International Law and International Relations

Oliver Westerwinter, University of St Gallen, The Origins of Informal Governance in World Politics

Madalina Dobrescu, College of Europe Natolin, Power, Perceptions and the Long Winding Road to International Cooperation: Explaining third country participation in CSDP missions

Francesco Molteni, EUI, Monetary and Fiscal Policy, International Macroeconomics and International Finance

Aydin Yildirim, EUI, Domestic Politics of International Cooperation: Untangling firms' impact on global rules and standards

Julian Hinz, Kiel Institute for the World Economy, The Weaponization of Trade Policy: Trade sanctions and electoral outcomes

Andrea Papadia, EUI, The Historical Evolution of Fiscal Institutions from the 19th Century until Today at the Municipal Level for Brazil

Mathilde Zederman, SOAS, University of London, Islamist Exile Politics in Europe in a Comparative Perspective: Dynamics of exile, activism and return

Iakovos Iakovidis, Greek Ministry of Foreign Affairs, The Role of Religion in International Relations

Wessel Reijers, Dublin City University, Governance Technology: Mediating global citizenship

MARIE SKŁODOWSKA CURIE FELLOWS

Luigi Achilli, EUI, Migrants and People Smugglers: A comparative study of smuggling networks in the Eastern Mediterranean and the Central American corridors

Tiziana Caponio, University of Turin, Migration Policy in Multi-Level Political Settings: City network in Europe and North America

Hugo Meijer, IRSEM and CERI, Western Strategies in East Asia: The reconfiguration of US, British and French security policies in the 'Pacific Century'