

Visiting Fellows & Robert Schuman Fellows - Academic year 2018/2019

VISITING FELLOWS

Natassa Athanasiadou, Maastricht University, Independence in EU Administrative Law

Primavera De Filippi, CERA/CNRS/ University Paris II, Global Citizenship Law

Bela Greskovits, Central European University, Organized Labour's Responses to the Great Recession on Europe's Peripheries

Graham Avery, Honorary Director-General of the European Commission, A British Life in European Affairs 1969-2006 - a Retrospective

Alexandra Delliou, The Australian National University, Popular Histories and Public Narratives of Emigration out of Europe: Current contexts

Hideaki Kawato, Nihon University, Theorizing the Micro-Regionalism: From the facets of history, economics and politics

Henrik Bjørnebye, University of Oslo, The Regulation of Sustainable Regional Electricity Markets

William Drozdiak, Brookings Institution, After America: Can Europe find its own way?

Federica Infantino, Free University of Brussels, Practicing Immigration Detention and Removal in the EU

Laurie Boussaguet, University of Rouen, Symbolic Politics; Participatory mechanisms in EU Governance; Decision-making in Public Policy

Philippe Fargues, EUI, Developing a Knowledge Base on Migration to the GCC States

Miron Lakomy, University of Silesia, Picturing Islamic State's Cyber Jihad: Towards digital decline?

Elif Cetin, University of Cambridge, Italy - Turkey Irregular Migration

David Fennelly, University of Dublin, Framing EU - UK Relations Post-Brexit

Wilhelm Lehmann, European Parliament, A Showcase of Institutional Stasis? Towards a historical-institutionalist account of electoral reform in the EU

Cecilia Corsi, University of Florence, From the Management of Migratory Flows to Strategies for Integration

Diego Garzia, University of Lucerne, Voting Advice Application for EP Elections 2019

Anna Lübke, University of Applied Sciences, Fulda, European Asylum Law, CEAS and Human Rights Implications for the Allocation of Asylum Seekers

Alfredo De Feo, European College of Parma and EUI, The Relaunch of the European Project: The contribution of the EU budget

Giorgia Giovannetti, University of Florence, Global Economics and Global Governance

Andrea Mammone, Royal Holloway, University of London, The Far Right and the Return of Nationalism

Petros Mavroidis, Columbia University, Global Economics and Global Governance

Monica Sassatelli, Goldsmiths, University of London, The Nation on Display and Cultural Diplomacy: A view from the Venice Biennale's national pavilions in contemporary visual arts' global expansion

Gaby Umbach, European Parliamentary Research Service, Globalstat

Valentin Mircea, Mircea and Partners Law Firm, The Reform of the Enforcement of the Competition Rules in the EU

Ian Scoones, University of Sussex, Pastoralism, Uncertainty and Resilience: Global lessons from the margins

Jean-Jacques Van Helten, Bank of Montreal, Financial Crises: The changing role of risk management after 2007

James Renton, EUI, International Terrorism in Global Politics

Francesca Scrinzi, EUI, Gender and the Populist Radical Right in Europe

Giancarlo Vilella, European Parliament, The Working Methods of the EP in the Near Future (European Parliament Fellow)

Richard Rose, University of Strathclyde Glasgow, The Challenges of national Referendums for the Authority and Legitimacy of the European Union

Tzehainesh Teklè, ILO International Training Centre, Which Role for International Labour Law in the Jurisprudence of the ECJ and the ECtHR?

Maarten Vink, University of Maastricht, Globalcit: Global Citizenship and Global Governance

ROBERT SCHUMAN FELLOWS

Hilke Brockmann, Jacobs University, Subjective Well-Being; Future Perfect: World visions of the tech elite; Tracking Learning Cultures: An app-based study on parenting

Yudhishtir Raj Isar, American University of Paris, Cultural Diplomacy: Between foreign policy and intercultural dialogue

Gurpreet Mahajan, Jawaharlal Nehru University, Frameworks for the Governance of Religion and Religious Diversity in Liberal Democracies: A comparative study of India and Western Europe

David Coen, University College London, European Business Lobbying; Business Attitudes to Brexit

Koichi Iwabuchi, Monash University, Rethinking Trans-Asian Cultural Connections

Gary Marks, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Global Governance Programme

Gerda Falkner, University of Vienna, The ECJ and Issues of (Non-)Compliance with EU Law

Ruud Koopman, WZB Berlin Social Science Center, Cultural Rights of Majorities between Universalism and Minority Rights

Douglas Nelson, Tulane University, Global Governance Programme - Global Economics

Michele Grossman, Deakin University, The Relationship between Religion, Radicalisation and Violence

Sandra Kröger, Exeter University, Differentiated Integration; Lying in Politics

Frank Schimmelfennig, Center for Comparative and International Studies ETH Zürich, Global Governance Programme

Liesbet Hooghe, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Global Governance Programme

Peggy Levitt, Wellesley College, Cultural Pluralism in the Global South