

[Annex 1] MRM Participation and Copyright Agreement

Copyright

By submitting the paper, participants automatically declare that:

- the paper has not been published;
- the paper has not been accepted for publication and will not be submitted for publication anywhere before the MRM takes place;
- the author is the copyright holder and is informed of, and has fulfilled, any requirements regarding the rights of third parties;
- the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies (RSCAS) has been granted permission to publish and distribute the paper (in the form submitted for the MRM) by any means and in any media (in particular, hardcopy e-publication, and CD-rom/DVD) for an indefinite period. It is understood that the same or any other version of the paper can be submitted for publication elsewhere without restrictions after the MRM, the only restriction being that potential future publishers accept that the paper (in the form submitted for the MRM) will remain available and may be distributed by the RSCAS. In case of a co-organised workshop, the co-organising partner institution is granted the same rights as the RSCAS.

Paper protection and distribution

- All papers will be available on a secure online database;
- All papers will state the name of the copyright holder(s), and will also state that no quotation or citation is allowed, unless previous written authorisation is obtained from the author(s);
- Papers will be made available to all participants in electronic form only, on the web (password protected).

Participants should bring all the papers for their workshop to the MRM. Photocopies will not be supplied and participants wishing to make any photocopies will be charged a fee.

Reference in other publication(s)

The following citation format should be used for papers from the MRM published either in its original or in a revised form after the MRM (for all workshops, except for the co-organised ones):

Paper presented at the Eleventh Mediterranean Research Meeting, Florence and Montecatini Terme 6 – 9 April 2011, organised by the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies at the European University Institute.

For papers in co-organised and co-sponsored workshops, please use the following citation format:
