

Migration Working Group

migrationworkinggroup@eui.eu

Seminar Series 2021-2022

The Migration Working Group \(MWG\) is a researcher-led research group, whose aim is to foster exchange on the latest, cutting-edge migration research and give the opportunity to early career scholars and PhD researchers to present their research.

The MWG is organised by the Migration Policy Centre \(MPC\) in coordination with EUI researchers Henriët Baas, Anne Sofie Cornelius Nielsen, Alexandra Karaïskou and Ophelia Nicole-Berva.

The sessions of the 2021-2022 series are held online or hybrid format. Zoom links are provided after registration to each event.

16 November, 11h30 – 13h00

EU labour migration policy & Aversion to breaking rules in migrant populations

Paula Hoffmeyer-Zlotnik – Visiting PhD researcher, SPS department, EUI/University of Geneva

Supranational entrepreneurship in a contested policy field: The case of the Intra-Corporate Transferee Directive

Andrea Ichino – Professor, EUI, ECON Department

Aversion to breaking rules and migration

24 November, 15h00 – 16h30

Joint session with the Legal and Political Theory Working Group

Anna Milioni – PhD researcher in philosophy, King's College

Mobile migration and its challenges to democracy

8 December, 11h30 – 13h00

EU high-tech borders and the right to effective remedies

Evelien Brouwer, Lecturer in Public Law and Technology, Utrecht University

'Schengen and the administration of exclusion: legal remedies caught in between entry bans, risk assessment and Artificial Intelligence

Niovi Vavoula, Lecturer (Assistant Professor) in Migration and Security, Queen Mary University of London

Information Sharing in the Administration of Asylum: In-Between Gaps in Judicial Protection and Interstate Trust

14 December, 11h30 – 13h00

Public attitudes towards migration and migrant voting behavior

Mariana Carmo Duarte (PhD researcher, SPS department, EUI), João Carvalho (ISCTE-Instituto Universitário de Lisboa) and Didier Ruedin (University of Neuchâtel)

Follow the media? Explaining public concern with immigration in the 2000s

Victoria Finn – Max Weber Fellow, EUI

Motivations to (not) vote: Migrant ties and trust in two countries

18 January, 11h30 – 13h00

Borders and (im)mobility along migration routes

Andrew Fallone and Moaz Abdelrahman – School of Transnational Governance, EUI

Crossing the border on TikTok: Documenting irregular journeys through novel social media platforms

Eroll Kuhn – Max Weber Fellow, EUI

How participation in the European refugee relocation program affected refugee journeys/mobility

27 January, 16h00 – 18h00

Visual Methodologies in Migrations Studies

Joint session with CERC Migration and Integration and Qualifie

Presentation of the book "Visual Methodology in Migration Studies. New Possibilities, Theoretical Implications, and Ethical Questions" (2021, Springer) and edited by Karolina Nikielska-Sekula and Amandine Desille

SPEAKERS:

Karolina Nikielska-Sekula, Jagiellonian University
Amandine Desille, University of Bordeaux
Franz Buhr, University of Lisbon
Sanderien Verstappen, University of Vienna
Karolína Augustová, Aston University
Tina Magazzini, European University Institute
Alice Massari, Ryerson University

15 February, 11h30 – 13h00

Strategies in Migration Management: deterrence or forecasting?

Stephanie Acker – Policy Leader Fellow, STG, EUI

But does the math work? Solutions for the refugee crisis with actual numbers?

Verena Brändle & Peter Tolochko – Max Weber Fellow, EUI

The “who is who” of “information risk campaigns” from government for migrants

15 March, 11h30 – 13h00

Drivers behind mobility and reception in different eras

Fotis Papadopoulos – PhD researcher, EUI – HEC department

Greek migration to Sub-Saharan Africa: changing trends from colonial times to postcolonial states

Anne Sofie Nielsen – PhD researcher, EUI – SPS department

The effect of human values on attitude towards immigration

19 April, 11h30 – 13h00

How status matters? Economic integration and citizenship inclusion

Julie Fournier – PhD researcher, EUI – SPS department

Occupational attainment and career progression among Iraqi immigrants admitted under different categories in Sweden

Victoria Donnalaja (Max Weber Fellow) & Maarten Vink (Chair in Citizenship Studies, RSCAS)

Identifying the contours of Italian citizenship: what drives public attitudes to the citizenship status of immigrants' children

17 May, 11h30 – 13h00

Conventional and digital means of migration control

Amanda Musco Eklund – PhD researcher in law, Umeå University

AI in Border Control – The Autonomy Aspect & Rule of Law Risks

Victoria Finn – Max Weber Fellow, EUI

Blazing the Paper Trail: Documents as Migration States' Temporal Control

How to register to events

- The events are advertised to EUI members about a week before the seminar
- For externals, events are advertised on the website of the Migration Policy Centre
- Stay tuned for all events by registering to the MPC mailing list