

CURRICULUM VITAE

Juan Ignacio Signes de Mesa is a legal secretary ('référéndaire') at the Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) since 2007.

In this capacity, he has provided legal advice and drafted projects of orders and judgements (in French) in fields such as EU sanctions and restrictive measures-EFSP, international trade, fight against terrorism, competition law and state aid, anti-dumping, intellectual property and banking supervision.

He holds an LL.B. and Ph.D. from Universidad Complutense (Madrid), and LL.M. degrees from Harvard Law School and the College of Europe.

He teaches EU substantive and procedural law and policy at Universidad Complutense, Universidad Pontificia Comillas-ICADE (Madrid) and the Fondation pour le droit continental (Paris).

He is the President of the Academy of European Legal Practice (APJE, www.apje.eu), and also director of several academic initiatives on the Court of Justice of the European Union and its case-law within the summer programs of the Universidad Internacional Menéndez Pelayo (Santander) and Universidad del País Vasco (San Sebastian), as well as in the Reale Collegio di Spagna (Bologna).

He is a member of the New York and the Madrid Bars (currently, non-active). Since 2016, he also holds the title of 'Académico correspondiente' of the Spanish Royal Academy of Law and Jurisprudence.

He is the author of more than 70 publications in leading editorials and legal journals on EU law, and regularly participates upon invitation in European and international fora.

* * *