A Chair in Applied Microeconomics

(ECO4)

The Department of Economics invites applications for a Chair in Applied Microeconomics that will be vacant in the Academic Year 2011/12. To fulfill the needs of the Department's structured PhD programme, candidates must have experience in graduate-level formal instruction and doctoral supervision as well as a strong academic publication record.

Candidates should have an excellent research record in applied microeconomics, for example in industrial economics or political economy or financial economics or public economics. The successful candidate will teach in the microeconomics sequence of the Department.

The Department promotes gender equality and cultural diversity. Contracts are for five years, renewable for further three years.

Interested applicants should contact the Director of the Academic Service, Dr. Andreas Frijdal, in order to receive an application and information pack.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 30 November 2010.
