

European University
Institute

Chair in in Macroeconomics Department of Economics

European University Institute is looking for candidates with a distinguished record of scholarly publications and experience in postgraduate teaching and doctoral supervision, to fill

A Chair in Macroeconomics (EC09)

The Department of Economics invites applications for a Chair in Macroeconomics which will be vacant in September 2013. To fulfill the needs of the department's structured Ph.D. programme, candidates must have experience in graduate-level formal instruction and doctoral supervision as well as a strong academic publication record.

Candidates should have an excellent research record in macroeconomics, with interests in areas such as dynamic macro theory, business cycles, macro-labour, monetary or international economics, computational and estimation issues. Candidates whose research agenda has a strong empirical component will be given preference.

The Department promotes gender equality and cultural diversity. Contracts are for five years, renewable for further three years.

Interested applicants should consult www.eui.eu/vacancies for further details.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 27 January 2013

CONTACTS

Tel.: +39-055-4685.332

E-mail: applypro@eui.eu

Internet: <http://www.eui.eu>

European University Institute
Via dei Roccettini 9
I-50014 San Domenico di Fiesole
ITALY

The aim of the European University Institute shall be to contribute, by its activities in the fields of higher education and research, to the development of the cultural and scientific heritage of Europe... This aim shall be pursued through teaching and research at the highest university level... the Institute shall develop interdisciplinary research programmes on the major issues confronting contemporary European society, including matters relating to the construction of Europe.

-Art. 2 of the Convention setting up a European University Institute