

Florence, 16 October 2012

Advertisement for appointment of Research Assistant
Ref: RSC 30 / 2012 (please quote in all correspondence)

Department:	Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies
Length of contract and % of full-time:	6 months (possible renewal upon satisfactory performance), full-time, start 16 th January 2013
Director of project:	Jean-Michel Glachant and Matthias Finger
Title of project:	Florence School of Regulation – Transport Area
Job description:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">– Contribute to the development and planning of new FSR Transport publications and communication material. Write one-page documents, reports, summaries and other documents– Analytical and research tasks– Gather and process information from different sources– Additional tasks as required – Salary will take into account prior experience– The researcher will be based in Florence
Qualifications:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">– Master's degree in Economics (preferably Transport Economics), Law, Logistics, Business Administration, European Studies with specialisation in transport issues, or similar– Minimum 1 year of experience with the transport sector through work and/or research, including internships– Excellent knowledge of transport regulation, policies, performance (ideally rail, urban and/or air transport), and willingness to learn about new transport modes– Excellent ability to process information in a concise and clear way, excellent analytical, writing and communication skills– Excellent organisational skills, ability to work independently and in a team
Languages:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">– Excellent command of English, an additional European language is a plus
Applications, with curriculum vitae of max. 2 pages, cover letter of max. 1 page, and a one page document on a transport issue must be addressed to the Academic Service, for the attention of Dr. A. Frijdal, at the following e-mail address: apply.resposts@eui.eu. The deadline for applications is 11 November 2012.	