

European University
Institute

Chairs in Law
Department of Law

The European University Institute is looking for candidates with a distinguished record of scholarly publications and experience in postgraduate teaching and doctoral supervision, to fill

Three Chairs in Law

The vacancies are open to candidates whose research profile and expertise would complement and expand the Department's current portfolio of research activities. In particular, the Department is interested in candidates that will continue its long-standing research and supervision in the field of European Law. In addition, applications are sought from those whose research falls within one or more of the following: legal philosophy and transnational legal theory; international institutions and organizations; international private and commercial law; law and technology; social scientific research methods (including gender studies, law and economics and law and society).

The contracts are for five years, renewable for a further three years. The Institute is an equal opportunity employer, and takes into account the importance of balance in gender, geographical and minority representation.

Interested applicants should consult www.eui.eu/vacancies for further details.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 8 February 2016

CONTACTS

Academic Service
Veerle Deckmyn, Director
Tel.: +39-055-4685.359
E-mail: applypro@eui.eu
Internet: <http://www.eui.eu>
European University Institute
Via dei Roccettini 9
I-50014 San Domenico di Fiesole
ITALY

The aim of the European University Institute shall be to contribute, by its activities in the fields of higher education and research, to the development of the cultural and scientific heritage of Europe... This aim shall be pursued through teaching and research at the highest university level... the Institute shall develop interdisciplinary research programmes on the major issues confronting contemporary European society, including matters relating to the construction of Europe.

-Art. 2 of the Convention setting up a European University Institute