

European University
Institute

Ernst B. Haas Chair of Transnational Governance (RSC-EBH)

The European University Institute is looking for candidates with a distinguished record of scholarly publications, a successful track record in research funding and experience in postgraduate teaching and doctoral supervision, to fill the

Ernst B. Haas Chair of Transnational Governance (RSC-EBH)

As part of its commitment to the Global Governance Programme (GGP), the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies (RSCAS) seeks to recruit an outstanding scholar to a new Chair in Transnational Governance. Candidates should have an interest in comparative research on European and transnational governance, preferably involving the European Union. The successful candidate will have a strong record of research, extensive published output, experience in designing, winning and managing large funded research projects, and a deep commitment to doctoral and post-doctoral education. The chair is open to candidates at all levels of seniority.

The contract is for five years, renewable for a further three years. The Institute is an equal opportunity employer.

Interested applicants should consult www.eui.eu/vacancies for further particulars.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 18 March 2015

CONTACTS

Academic Service
Veerle Deckmyn, Director
Tel.: +39 055.4685.359
E-mail: applypro@eui.eu
Internet: <http://www.eui.eu>

European University Institute
Via dei Roccettini 9
I-50014 San Domenico di Fiesole
ITALY

The aim of the European University Institute shall be to contribute, by its activities in the fields of higher education and research, to the development of the cultural and scientific heritage of Europe... This aim shall be pursued through teaching and research at the highest university level... the Institute shall develop interdisciplinary research programmes on the major issues confronting contemporary European society, including matters relating to the construction of Europe.

-Art. 2 of the Convention setting up a European University Institute