Assistant Professor Department of Economics

The Department of Economics at the European University Institute is proposing to make one entry-level appointment at the rank of to commence in the academic year 2018/2019. The Department welcomes applications in all fields of economics. Candidates should have, or expect to complete, a PhD by September 2018. The candidates should show strong research potential and a capacity for effective teaching and advising at graduate level.

Assistant Professor

More information about the Economics Department may be found at www.eui.eu/ECO

Review of applications will begin on November 26, 2017. Short-listed candidates will be invited to interviews at the American Economic Association's (ASSA) meetings in Philadelphia in January 2018.

The EUI is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive due consideration.

Application Instructions

Candidates should apply on-line through the Department's job posting on EconJobMarket at <https://econjobmarket.org/postings.php?posid=4700>

The application should include a curriculum vitae, a brief description of research in progress, a job market paper, and information on teaching experience (if any). Candidates should also provide the name and contact information of three referees who will submit a letter of recommendation. The EUI may seek the opinion of other experts in the field.
