

Director School of Transnational Governance

The European University Institute seeks to hire a Director for its School of Transnational Governance.

School of Transnational Governance

The School of Transnational Governance (STG) (<https://stg.eui.eu/>) was created in 2017 with the aim of delivering teaching and high-level executive education in the methods, knowledge, skills and practice of governance beyond the State. The STG brings the worlds of academia and policy-making together in an effort to operate in a context, both inside and outside Europe, where policy-making increasingly transcends national borders. The main activities of the School are structured around four pillars: (i) Master of Arts in Transnational Governance; (ii) Executive Education for Practitioners; (iii) Policy Leader Fellowships; (iv) High-Level Policy Dialogues. The STG has started with the policy and executive education activities and will begin operation of its flagship Master of Arts programme in 2020.

Director of the School of Transnational Governance

Candidates will have proven experience in managing an academic, policy research, policy advocacy, and/or executive education centre, strong institution-building skills, and a demonstrated track record of engaging with public policy questions and the world of practice. They will preferably have acquired direct experience in the world of transnational policy making. They will have a proven talent and strong skills in creating and motivating transnational networks, a sound knowledge of the global higher education and training landscape in the fields of governance, international relations and public policy, a proven and deep familiarity with one of the relevant fields of study of the STG. The Director will be responsible for the growth and consolidation of the STG and will build it into an internationally recognised institution. She/he will manage the School and develop its medium and long-term strategy, recruit faculty, implement educational programmes and raise funds.

The EUI is an equal opportunities employer and takes into account the importance of balance in gender, geographical and minority representation.

Interested applicants should consult www.eui.eu/vacancies for further particulars.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 30 October 2019.

CONTACTS

Academic Service

Veerle Deckmyn, Director

Tel.: +39 055 4685 359

E-mail: applypro@eui.eu

Internet: <http://www.eui.eu>

European University Institute

Via dei Roccettini 9

I-50014 San Domenico di Fiesole, ITALY

The aim of the European University Institute shall be to contribute, by its activities in the fields of higher education and research, to the development of the cultural and scientific heritage of Europe... This aim shall be pursued through teaching and research at the highest university level..., the Institute shall develop interdisciplinary research programmes on the major issues confronting contemporary European society, including matters relating to the construction of Europe.

-Art. 2 of the Convention setting up a European University Institute