Programme Director of the European Digital Media Observatory (EDMO)

The European Digital Media Observatory is a project funded by the European Commission that brings together fact-checkers, media literacy experts and academic researchers to understand and analyse disinformation, in collaboration with media organisations, online platforms and media literacy practitioners. It is aimed at setting up a secure online platform supporting the academic analysis of disinformation campaigns and providing public information to raise awareness about disinformation.

The Programme Director post will be an appointment with the School of Transnational Governance at the EUI. The successful candidate will lead and coordinate a team that engages with countering disinformation and achieving high level of public awareness. S/he will manage the staff and budget associated with EDMO, will coordinate the collaboration of the partners and liaise with the European Commission, external and internal stakeholders, coordinate reporting and procedures thus securing coherence and efficiency of the project activities in producing all agreed outcomes.

The EUI is an equal opportunities employer and takes into account the importance of balance in gender, geographical and minority representation.

Interested applicants should consult Open competitions for academic posts • European University Institute \(eui.eu\) for further particulars.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 30 August 2021.
