Joint Chair in the History of East-Central and South-Eastern Europe, Late-Nineteenth Century to the Present

The Department of History and Civilisation and the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies seek outstanding candidates with an established record in research and supervision on the history of East-Central and South-Eastern Europe from the late-nineteenth century to the present. The position is open to historians specialising in cultural, economic, institutional, international, political, social, and transnational approaches. We are particularly interested in candidates who combine two or more of these approaches.
