

Department of History and Civilisation

The European University Institute is looking for candidates with a distinguished record of scholarly publications and experience in postgraduate teaching and doctoral supervision, to fill a

Chair in the History of European Integration, twentieth century to the present

The Department of History and Civilisation seeks candidates with an established record in research and supervision on the processes of integration, cooperation, and conflict in Europe over the last century. The position is open to historians specialising in institutional, international, cultural, social, political or economic approaches. We are particularly interested in candidates who combine two or more of these. The Chair also carries the responsibility for co-directing the Alcide De Gasperi Research Center on the History of European Integration.

The EUI is an equal opportunities employer and takes into account the importance of balance in gender, geographical and minority representation.

Interested applicants should consult Open competitions for academic posts • European University Institute \(eui.eu\) for further particulars.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 15 November 2021.
