Research Fellow in the School of Transnational Governance

Florence, 27 June 2022

Reference: V/RF/STG/21/2022

Who we are

The European University Institute (EUI) at a glance:

- an international organisation set up in 1972;
- a research university focusing exclusively on postgraduate, doctoral and post-doctoral studies, and advanced research;
- located in the hills overlooking the city of Florence, Italy.

The Institute also hosts the Historical Archives of the European Union.

The EUI School of Transnational Governance (STG) trains tomorrow's leaders on the concepts, methods and practices of governance beyond the state. It offers policy leader fellowships, executive training and high-level policy dialogues. The School launched a new Master's programme in transnational governance in 2020.

About the project

Project Directors	Prof. Alexander Stubb and Prof. Jos Delbeke
Project details	School of Transnational Governance Climate: The EU has a compliance carbon market (ETS) that is functioning as a beacon of economic and climate efficiency. While some countries are following this path, notably China, most others are looking to the so-called 'voluntary carbon markets'. Following net-zero climate target announcements of major corporations, this voluntary carbon market is taking off, but major questions still need to be resolved related to environmental integrity. That is where the compliance and voluntary carbon markets can learn a lot of one another about improving the governance functions, not least related to monitoring, reporting and verification of the emissions. The successful candidate will oversee and stimulate this process, together with all relevant market actors.
