

EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY INSTITUTE

for research and postgraduate training in the social sciences and humanities is looking for candidates with a distinguished record of scholarly publications and experience in postgraduate teaching and doctoral supervision, to fill

A Joint Chair in Twentieth Century European Political and International History (HEC-RSC)

The History Department and the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies seek a specialist in transnational and international history in the broadest sense, with a focus on processes of political (and societal) transformation across Europe in the twentieth century. Candidates must have experience in doctoral supervision, as well as strong academic publications records. The chair will become available in September 2007.

The specialist appointed would be expected to focus primarily on Europe, but placing European developments in their global context. Applications are strongly welcomed from candidates with a close engagement with the social sciences, and who are able to relate historical research to matters of contemporary concern.

The Institute is an equal opportunity employer. Contracts are for five years, renewable for further three years.

Interested applicants should contact the Head of the Academic Service, Dr. Andreas Frijdal, in order to receive an application and information pack.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 15 September 2006.
