

"for research and postgraduate training in the social sciences and humanities"

is looking for candidates with a distinguished record of scholarly publications and experience in postgraduate teaching and doctoral supervision, to fill

A Chair in Legal Theory

(LAW6)

in the Department of Law.

Applications are sought from candidates with academic expertise in the field of Legal Theory and Legal Philosophy, including Social Theories of Law.

The Department's focus is on the European, comparative and international dimensions of legal scholarship. The successful candidate will be expected to address this broader focus in his/her teaching and supervision of doctoral and LL.M. students, as well as pursue his/her own research.

The Department is committed to linguistic diversity in its teaching and research activities. Candidates should have a good knowledge of at least two of the more widely used European Union languages.

The chair will become vacant as from 1 September 2009.

Contracts are for five years, renewable for further three years. The Institute is an equal opportunity employer, and takes into account the importance of balance in gender, geographical and minority representation.

Interested applicants should contact the Head of the Academic Service, Dr. Andreas Frijdal, in order to receive an application and information pack.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 20 January 2008.
