Friday 13 October 2017, 10:00-13:45

Sala Europa, Villa Schifanoia, Via Giovanni Boccaccio, 121, 50133, Florence

The Historical Archives of the European Union and the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies are pleased to invite you to register for the Europe in the Archives, Europe in the Future Conference, organised by the Academic Association for Contemporary European Studies (UACES) in collaboration with the European University Institute. The conference is scheduled for Thursday 12 (14:00-19:00, Villa Salviati) and Friday 13 October (10:00-13:45, Villa Schifanoia).

The Conference will bring together both academics and archivists to examine the last 50 years of European Studies and UK-EU relations. The discussion will tackle several topics, amongst which “Using archives for historical research on the EU”, “Britain and the EU in the archives”, “The changing relationship between the UK and the EU”, and “The future of European Studies”.

This event will also mark the 50th anniversary of the UACES as the UK hub for European studies.

More information, including the programme, is available at the event's webpage.

About the European University Institute

The European University Institute was set up in 1972 by the six founding member states of the then-European Communities. Its aim is to provide advanced academic training for doctoral and post-doctoral researchers, and to foster research in fields of particular relevance for the development of Europe. With 22 contracting states, the Institute hosts around 1000 academic members in its departments of Economics, History, Law, and Political and Social Sciences; the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies; the School of Transnational Governance; and the Historical Archives of the European Union.
