Publication and validity of the reserve list:

The highest scoring candidates will be placed on the reserve list which will be published on the EUI website (<http://www.eui.eu/About/JobOpportunities/Index.aspx>). By submitting their application, candidates acknowledge and give their explicit consent to this procedure, according to the Data protection regulation in force at the EUI (President's Decision n. 32 of 27 November 2008).

Candidates on the reserve list are not guaranteed recruitment, since this depends on the number of posts that may fall vacant.

The validity of the reserve list is twelve months from the date of publication on the EUI website.

The EUI reserves the right to extend the validity of the reserve list one or several times and will communicate any extension by publishing it on the website.

Whenever a vacancy occurs, the EUI will publish it on the EUI website and make a job offer to the first available candidate(s) on the reserve list, in conformity with the priority ranking. Candidates will be contacted by e-mail or by registered letter with return receipt.

The net monthly salary:

The net monthly salary after taxes is approx. euro 2,030. In addition, when conditions as laid down by the Statutes are applicable, there are family allowances - household allowance, dependent child allowance, education allowance – and expatriation allowance (approx. 16% of salary).

The European University Institute is an academic institution set up in 1972 by the Member States of the European Union charged with research and postgraduate training in Law, Economics, History and Civilisation and Political and Social Sciences with special reference to Europe. The Institute is not an EU Institution, but an intergovernmental organization, funded directly by signatory states, partly by the European Commission and to some extent through external funding (<http://www.eui.eu>).

The European University Institute is an equal opportunity employer.

Applications must be submitted electronically using the IUE/1/2010 online application form. Applications received by e-mail, fax or post will not be considered.
