1. THE ORGANISATION

The European University Institute (EUI) is an academic institution set up in 1972 by the then Member States of the European Union, providing doctoral training in Law, Economics, History and Civilisation and Political and Social Sciences with special reference to Europe. In addition to the departments, the Institute includes the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies (RSCAS), which focuses on inter-disciplinary, comparative and policy research on the major issues affecting European societies, the Max Weber Programme for Post-doctoral Studies, which prepares fellows for a career in academia, and the School of Transnational Governance, which sets out to study, debate and teach matters pertaining to governance beyond the State. The Institute also hosts the Historical Archives of the European Union. The EUI is not an EU Institution or body, but an intergovernmental organisation, funded directly by the signatory states, partly by the European Commission and to some extent through external funding. The EUI provides a multinational work environment in an intellectually stimulating atmosphere.

1. DESCRIPTION OF RESPONSIBILITIES

Introduction

The Business Information Officer will be part of the Corporate Applications Group which is in charge of the selection, support and implementation of Institute-wide systems such as Finance and Accounting (SAP), Payroll, Researcher Administration (OSIRIS), Human Resources and Identity and Access Management.

The Group is also responsible for the analysis, design, development and maintenance of administration-oriented software solutions to ensure the integration of these systems into the Institute's application landscape, as well as for the production and development of timely, accurate and appropriate management reporting.

The EUI is looking for an experienced, proactive and communicative professional to take on the responsibility for the management of the Institute's IT systems, in the first instance focussed specifically on the requirements of the academic domain.

The academic domain primarily comprises the following processes: applications, records and grants management, study progress and eLearning solutions (LMS, MOOC platform).

The Business Information Officer will have extensive knowledge of these processes and their supporting systems, and will be responsible for analysing business' needs and the translation of this understanding to IT solutions which support and/or improve business processes.

She/he will also configure meaningful reports for users, combining different information sources. She/he will be able to work independently, structuring her/his own work and performing tasks autonomously.

Main duties and responsibilities

Reporting to the team coordinator, the successful candidate will be primarily responsible for:

- Advising (academic and administrative) staff on the opportunities and the implementation of agreed projects and products;
- Managing and documenting systems configuration;
- Maintaining constructive relationships with academics and administrators in the academic units;
- Documenting processes and initiating process improvements;
- Providing training to users; transferring own knowledge to non-specialists;
- Performing reporting activities;
- Organising the testing of new developments and releases.

Main competencies

- Organizational skills and ability to meet deadlines and to set priorities;
- Communication and presentation skills;
- Ability to work collaboratively and build strong working relationships.

2. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

On the closing date for online applications, candidates must fulfil all the following general and specific conditions:

3.1 General conditions

- Being a national of a Member State of the European Union;
- Enjoying full rights as a citizen attested by a recent extract from judicial records and/or certificate of good conduct proving no previous conviction for a criminal or administrative offence that could call into question his/her suitability for performing the duties of the post;
- Having fulfilled any obligations imposed by the laws on military service;
- Being physically fit to perform the duties.

3.2 Specific conditions

3.2.1. Education (Qualifications)

- A level of post-secondary education attested by a diploma, or
- a level of secondary education attested by a diploma giving access to higher education, followed by at least three years of professional experience relevant to the nature of the duties. This professional experience will be part of the diploma and will not be taken into account in the required numbers of professional experience under 3.2.2.

3.2.2 Professional experience

By the deadline for applications, and in addition to the qualifications required above, candidates must have at least five years of professional experience gained after obtaining the diploma required under 3.2.1.

3.2.3 Knowledge of languages

- Main language: a thorough knowledge of one official language of the European Union; and
- Second language: a satisfactory knowledge of another official language of the European Union to the extent necessary for the performance of his/her duties.

4. SELECTION CRITERIA

Essential

- Bachelor degree in a field relevant to this post (e.g. Information Technology; Computer Science; Technology Management; (Business) Information Management) or an equivalent level of professional qualification in a closely related field;
- Minimum of five years of relevant professional experience;
- Experience with academic administrative processes and the management of a student information system;
- Knowledge of reporting tools and experience in creating custom reports;
- Excellent knowledge of English, both orally and in writing (CEFR level: C1 or above).

Advantageous

- Experience with relevant technologies and systems such as:
 - research-related tools (LMS, CRIS, MOOC, pedagogical assessment, surveys etc.);
 - other systems (OSIRIS, SAP FM, HR, Identity and Access Management, SQL, Oracle databases).
- Work experience in a multicultural or international environment;
- Knowledge of additional EU languages.

5. APPLICATION PROCEDURE & SCREENING PROCESS

Applications must be submitted electronically using the IUE/13/2017 online application form available at <http://www.eui.eu/About/JobOpportunities/AdministrativePosts.aspx> at the latest by 04/01/2018 at 24.00 Central European Time (please see also the specific guidelines under section 19 “Important information” in the application form).

Only complete applications submitted online will be accepted and considered. Applications received by e-mail, fax or post will not be considered. In order to avoid any technical constraints, we advise you to submit your application well ahead of the deadline.

The Selection Board will screen the documents of applicants with reference to the above-mentioned eligibility criteria as well as to the essential and advantageous selection criteria and will on the basis of these findings establish a shortlist.

Only shortlisted candidates will be invited for the interview and tests.

Candidates will be disqualified if they:

- do not complete the registration by the deadline;
- do not send a complete application;
- do not meet all the eligibility criteria on the closing date for online applications;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents at any stage of the procedure where these are requested.

If at any stage of the procedure, it is found that any of the information given in the application is false or not evidenced by the appropriate supporting documents, the candidate will be disqualified from the competition.

Contact: applyjob@eui.eu

Candidates who are not shortlisted will be duly notified by the Human Resources Service, once the decision on the appointed candidate has been taken by the Appointing Authority.

6. SELECTION PROCESS

A limited number of candidates (no more than 7), as shortlisted by the Selection Board, will be invited for an interview and tests:

6.1 Assessment method

Short-listed candidates will be subject to

- an interview assessing the candidate's skills and knowledge relevant to the post. The interview may also include a presentation by the candidate;
- other assessments, including a written test;
- an English language test.

Further information about the testing process will be provided in the invitation letter.

6.2 Interview

The interview will be conducted mainly in English (knowledge of other EU languages may also be tested). Mother tongue English speakers will be expected to demonstrate their knowledge of a second EU language.

Assessment on the basis of qualifications and marking of tests:

- Marking: 0 to 20 for the assessment on the basis of qualifications;
- Marking: 0 to 20 for the assessment/tests;
- Marking: 0 to 10 for the language test;
- Marking: 0 to 50 for the interview by the Selection Board.

The names of the selected candidate and, if applicable, of candidates included in the reserve list will be published on the EUI Web site:

<http://www.eui.eu/About/JobOpportunities/AdministrativePosts.aspx>

A successful candidate may explicitly request that his/her name not be published. Any such request must reach the EUI before the candidate is notified of the outcome of his/her application, and in any case no later than seven calendar days after the date of the tests and interview.

Candidates are reminded that the work of the Selection Board is confidential. It is thus forbidden to make any contact with the members of the Board, either directly or indirectly, at any stage of the selection procedure. Any infringement of this rule will lead to disqualification from the selection procedure.

Candidates should not encourage third parties either to contact the Selection Board on their behalf. Any infringement of this rule may lead to disqualification of the candidate.

7. CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

Type of contract:

The successful candidate will be appointed by the Appointing Authority as a temporary agent at grade AST4, pursuant to Title II of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants for an initial period of three years, with the possibility of renewal for a period of up to two years. On expiry of the renewed contract, the temporary agent may be appointed as permanent staff member.

The successful candidate will be asked to serve a probationary period of nine months.

The place of employment is Florence (Italy), where the EUI is located.

Remuneration:

The net monthly salary after taxes is approx. 3,243. In addition to the salary, staff members may be entitled to various allowances, in particular a household allowance, expatriation allowance (16% of basic salary and household allowance), dependent child allowance and education allowance. The EUI has its own social security and pension scheme. Under certain circumstances, in particular where the selected candidate is obliged to change his/her place of residence in order to take up employment, the EUI may also reimburse various expenses incurred on recruitment, notably removal expenses.

Further information about remuneration and benefits can be found in Annex I.

8. EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The European University Institute is an equal opportunity employer in accordance with Article 1d of its Staff Regulations. It accepts applications without discrimination on any grounds such as sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age or sexual orientation.

9. DATA PROTECTION

The purpose of processing of the data submitted by candidates is to manage their application in view of a possible pre-selection and recruitment by the EUI. The information candidates provide in their application form is collected for the purpose of the selection procedure. The EUI will ensure that candidates' personal data are processed as required by its Data Protection Policy (President's Decision No. 40 of 27 August 2013 regarding Data Protection at the EUI). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

10. COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS

If at any stage of the selection procedure, the candidate considers that his/her interests have been prejudiced by a particular decision, he/she can take the following action:

- Request for review

In assessing candidates' merits, the selection board observes the principle of equal treatment as well as the provisions governing the Competition procedure and the Board's proceedings.

If a candidate nevertheless believes that one of these principles has not been applied in his/her case, he/she has the right, within ten calendar days from when the e-mail informing him/her of the decision is sent, to send a letter by e-mail stating his/her case to the e-mail address: applyjob@eui.eu.

- Appeal procedures

If, at any stage of the competition, the candidate considers that the Human Resources Service or the Selection Board have acted unfairly or have failed to comply with:

- the rules governing the competition procedure, or
- the provisions of the competition notice,

and that his or her interests have been prejudiced as a result, the candidate can take the following actions:

1. Submit a formal complaint to the Principal under Article 1(2) of the Common Provisions for the Teaching and Administrative Staff
2. Submit a judicial appeal before the Organ of First Instance

Please note that appeals concerning an error of assessment relating to the general eligibility criteria are not matters for which the competition's selection board is responsible and shall only be admissible before the Organ of First Instance if an administrative complaint has previously been lodged under article 1, paragraph 2 of the EUI Staff Regulations.

More information on the complaint procedure and on further means of appeal under the EUI's judicial review framework available at:
