1. THE ORGANISATION

The European University Institute (EUI) is an academic institution set up in 1972 by the then Member States of the European Union, providing doctoral training in Law, Economics, History and Civilisation and Political and Social Sciences with special reference to Europe. In addition to the departments, the Institute includes the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies (RSCAS), which focuses on interdisciplinary, comparative and policy research, the Max Weber Programme for Post-doctoral Studies, which prepares fellows for a career in academia, and the School of Transnational Governance, which sets out to study, debate and teach matters pertaining to governance beyond the State. The Institute also hosts the Historical Archives of the European Union. The EUI is not an EU Institution or body, but an inter-governmental organization, funded directly by the signatory states, partly by the European Commission and to some extent through external funding. The EUI provides a multinational work environment in an intellectually stimulating atmosphere.

The EUI School of Transnational Governance (STG), launched in summer 2017, delivers teaching and high-level training in the methods, knowledge, skills and practice of governance beyond the State. The School brings the worlds of academia and policy-making together in an effort to explore a context, both inside and outside Europe, where policy-making increasingly transcends national borders. Currently, the School offers Executive Training Seminars for experienced professionals and a Policy Leaders Fellowship Programme for early- and mid-career innovators. It also hosts expert Policy Dialogues and is conducting an Oral History project to record the experiences of European Institution presidents. In 2020, the School will launch a policy-focussed Masters programme for graduates. The programmes will be structured around cross-disciplinary clusters in policy fields such as trade, climate, democratisation, comparative regionalism, security, and economic and social policy.
