1. THE ORGANISATION

The European University Institute \(EUI\) is an academic institution set up in 1972 by the then Member States of the European Union, providing doctoral training in Law, Economics, History and Civilisation and Political and Social Sciences with special reference to Europe. In addition to the departments, the Institute includes the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies (RSCAS), which focuses on inter-disciplinary, comparative and policy research, the Max Weber Programme for Post-doctoral Studies, which prepares fellows for a career in academia, and the School of Transnational Governance, which sets out to study, debate and teach matters pertaining to governance beyond the State. The Institute also hosts the Historical Archives of the European Union. The EUI is not an EU Institution or body, but an inter-governmental organization, funded directly by the signatory states, partly by the European Commission and to some extent through external funding. The EUI provides a multinational work environment in an intellectually stimulating atmosphere.

The Academic Service provides a wide range of services to the EUI scholarly community geared towards their academic research and professional development. It provides academic skills training, language services, counselling and wellbeing services and engages with researchers in a wide range of extracurricular activities. The Service oversees the selection, admission and reception of researchers, and administratively supports them during their entire stay. The Academic Service is also responsible for the organisation and preparation of the meetings of some governing bodies of the EUI.

The Language Centre, is part of the Academic Service and offers courses, workshops and services designed for EUI members and their different needs during their stay at the EUI. Its mission is to provide language training in oral and written academic communication skills and to facilitate networking in academic environments. The language centre offers language courses and services in English, French, Italian, German and Spanish provided by professionally trained staff (5) and also relies on a group of free lancers (10).

2. DESCRIPTION OF RESPONSIBILITIES

The EUI is looking for a teacher in English for Academic Purposes (EAP), for doctoral and postdoctoral researchers in the Social Sciences and Humanities.

The successful candidate will assist in designing and delivering courses, workshops and services for researchers (both docs and postdocs). He/she will assist in the coordination of the Language Centre's activities for the English language and collaborate with members of the EUI community, the colleagues in the Language Centre, and the teaching and learning officer.

More specific duties include:

Role in administrative processes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Contributing to the annual programme of courses and activities of the English language unit of the Language Centre;</li><li>• Providing English language courses and other learning activities to Ph.D. Researchers and postdoctoral fellows.</li></ul>
Level of Expertise
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Acting as a subject-matter specialist for English language courses, academic and professional development trainings at doctoral and postdoctoral levels;</li><li>• Acting as language specialist in English for academic purposes, also advising the Faculty on language-related issues.</li></ul>
Representation/ Communication:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Representing the Language Centre internally and externally: presenting the activities of the Centre in the framework of the EUI doctoral and postdoctoral programmes, presenting the Language Centre to external stakeholders and in conferences;</li><li>• Participating in outreach activities: developing networks and creating partnerships with key universities in Social Sciences &amp; Humanities both inside and outside the EU</li></ul>
Policy/ Strategy Making
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Under the supervision of the Director of the Academic Service and the Language Centre coordinator, assisting in developing and implementing the overall strategy, design and activities of the English language unit of the EUI Language Centre, taking account of its mission as an international teaching and research institution;</li><li>• Assisting in analysing trends in the needs of early-career researchers (doctoral and postdoctoral programmes) in order to develop strategies for the improvement of the activities of the Language Centre and of the Academic and Professional Development Programme, in cooperation with the academic units.</li></ul>
Managing People/ Role in HR processes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Assisting in coordinating the Language Centre's activities for English language;</li><li>• Assisting in the division of tasks (amongst staff members and freelancers) according to the annual programme of courses and activities;</li><li>• Providing contribution for the assessment, recruitment and the development of staff.</li></ul>

Finance and procurement responsibility

- Contributing to all financial and procurement processes related to the Language Centre;
- Verifying payments and commitments, and participating in evaluation committees for tender procedures.

Budget Management

- Contributing to the planning and management of the budget of the Language Centre.

3. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

On the closing date for online applications, candidates must fulfil all the following general and specific conditions:

3.1 General conditions

- Enjoying full rights as a citizen attested by a recent extract from judicial records and/or certificate of good conduct proving no previous conviction for a criminal or administrative offence that could call into question his/her suitability for performing the duties of the post;
- Having fulfilled any obligations imposed by the laws on military service;
- Being physically fit to perform the duties.

3.2 Specific conditions

3.2.1 Education (Qualifications)

- A level of post-secondary education attested by a diploma, or
- a level of secondary education attested by a diploma giving access to higher education, and appropriate professional experience of at least three years. This professional experience will be considered part of the educational qualification and will not be taken into account in the required numbers of professional experience under 3.2.2.

3.2.2. Professional experience<sup>1</sup>

By the deadline for applications, and in addition to the qualifications required above, candidates must have at least five years of relevant professional experience gained after obtaining the diploma required under 3.2.1.

3.2.3 Knowledge of Languages<sup>2</sup>

- Main language: have a thorough knowledge of one official language of the European Union; and
- Second language: a satisfactory knowledge of another official language of the European Union to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties.

<sup>1</sup> Professional experience will be counted from the date on which the applicant acquired the minimum qualification for access to this post. Only duly documented professional activity (i.e. remunerated employment or self-employment) is taken into account. Part-time work will be taken into account in proportion to the percentage of full-time hours worked. Periods of education or training and unremunerated traineeships are not taken into account. Completed and remunerated PhDs can be counted as professional experience up to a maximum of 3 years. Any given time period can be counted only once.

<sup>2</sup> Recruited candidates shall be required to demonstrate before their first promotion the ability to work in a third EU language.

4. SELECTION CRITERIA

Essential:

- Degree in languages, linguistics or related disciplines;
- At least 5 years of relevant professional experience in teaching, academic presentation and communication skills at doctoral and postdoctoral level to native and non-native speakers;
- Good knowledge of higher education trends and practices in Europe;
- Strong communication, representation, promotion and networking skills;
- Excellent knowledge of English (mother-tongue level), both spoken and written (CEFR level: C2).

Advantageous:

- Doctoral degree in a relevant area;
- Knowledge of additional languages of the European Union.

5. APPLICATION PROCEDURE & SCREENING PROCESS

Applications must be submitted electronically using the AD/ACS/3/2019 online application form available at <https://www.eui.eu/About/JobOpportunities/Open-competitions-for-administrative-posts> at the latest by 16/01/2020 at 24:00 Central European Time.

Only complete applications submitted online will be accepted and considered. Applications received by e-mail, fax or post will not be considered. In order to avoid any technical constraints, we advise you to submit your application well ahead of the deadline.

The Selection Board will screen the documents of applicants with reference to the above-mentioned eligibility criteria as well as to the essential and advantageous selection criteria and will on the basis of these findings establish a shortlist.

Only shortlisted candidates will be invited for the interview and tests.

Candidates will be disqualified if they:

- do not complete the registration by the deadline;
- do not send a complete application;
- do not meet all the eligibility criteria on the closing date for online applications;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents at any stage of the procedure where these are requested.

If at any stage of the procedure, it is found that any of the information given in the application is false or not evidenced by the appropriate supporting documents, the candidate will be disqualified from the competition.

Contact: applyjob@eui.eu

Candidates who are not shortlisted will be duly notified by the Human Resources Service, once the decision on the appointed candidate has been taken by the Appointing Authority.

6. SELECTION PROCESS

The Selection Board will assess and score each eligible application according to the essential and advantageous selection criteria laid down in this vacancy notice. It is envisaged that the 7 highest-scoring candidates will be invited for an interview and tests. All candidates having a score equal to the 7th highest scoring candidate will be included in the shortlist.

6.1 Assessment method

Shortlisted candidates will be subject to

- an interview assessing the candidate's skills and knowledge relevant to the post;
- other assessments, including a written test;
- an English language test.

Further information about the testing process will be provided in the invitation letter.

6.2 Interview

The interview will be conducted mainly in English (knowledge of other EU languages may also be tested). Mother tongue English speakers will be expected to demonstrate their knowledge of a second EU language.

Assessment on the basis of qualifications and marking of tests:

- Marking: 0 to 20 for the assessment on the basis of qualifications;
- Marking: 0 to 20 for the written test;
- Marking: 0 to 10 for the language skills;
- Marking: 0 to 50 for the interview by the Selection Board.

6.3 Reserve list

This competition is primarily aimed at setting up a priority list in order to fill the specific position advertised. However, this list may also be used as a reserve list to fill similar vacant future positions in other units of the European University Institute.

The names of the candidates included in the reserve list will be published on the EUI Web site:

<https://www.eui.eu/About/JobOpportunities/Open-competitions-for-administrative-posts>

A successful candidate may explicitly request that his/her name not be published. Any such request must reach the EUI before the candidate is notified of the outcome of his/her application, and in any case no later than seven calendar days after the date of the tests and interview.

Candidates on the reserve list are not guaranteed recruitment.

The validity of the reserve list is twelve months from the date of publication on the EUI website. The EUI reserves the right to extend the validity of the reserve list one or several times and will communicate any such extension by publishing it on the website.

Candidates are reminded that the work of the Selection Board is confidential. It is thus forbidden to make any contact with the members of the Board, either directly or indirectly, at any stage of the selection procedure. Any infringement of this rule will lead to disqualification from the selection procedure.

Candidates should not encourage third parties either to contact the Selection Board on their behalf. Any infringement of this rule may lead to disqualification of the candidate.

7. CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

Type of contract:

The successful candidate will be appointed by the Appointing Authority as a temporary agent at grade AST4, pursuant to Title II of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, for an initial period of three years, with the possibility of renewal for a fixed period of up to three years. Any further renewal shall be for an indefinite period.

The successful candidate will be asked to serve a probationary period of nine months.

The place of employment is Florence, where the EUI is located.

Remuneration:

The net monthly salary after taxes is approx. Euro 3,293. In addition to the salary, staff members may be entitled to various allowances, in particular a household allowance, expatriation allowance (16% of basic salary and household allowance), dependent child allowance and education allowance. The EUI has its own social security and pension scheme. Under certain circumstances, in particular where the selected candidate is obliged to change his/her place of residence in order to take up employment, the EUI may also reimburse various expenses incurred on recruitment, notably removal expenses.

8. EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The European University Institute is an equal opportunity employer in accordance with Article 1d of its Staff Regulations. It accepts applications without discrimination on any grounds such as sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age or sexual orientation.

9. DATA PROTECTION

The purpose of processing of the data submitted by candidates is to manage their application in view of a possible pre-selection and recruitment by the EUI. The information candidates provide in their application form is collected for the purpose of the selection procedure.

The EUI will ensure that candidates' personal data are processed as required by its Data Protection Policy (President's Decision No. 10 of 18 February 2019 regarding Data Protection at the EUI). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

10. COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS

If at any stage of the selection procedure, the candidate considers that his/her interests have been prejudiced by a particular decision, he/she can take the following action:

- Request for review

In assessing candidates' merits, the selection board observes the principle of equal treatment as well as the provisions governing the Competition procedure and the Board's proceedings.

If a candidate nevertheless believes that one of these principles has not been applied in his/her case, he/she has the right, within ten calendar days from when the e-mail informing him/her of the decision is sent, to send a letter by e-mail stating his/her case to the e-mail address: applyjob@eui.eu.

- Appeal procedures

If, at any stage of the competition, the candidate considers that the Human Resources Service or the Selection Board have acted unfairly or have failed to comply with:

- the rules governing the competition procedure, or
- the provisions of the competition notice,

and that his or her interests have been prejudiced as a result, the candidate can take the following actions:

1. Submit a formal complaint to the Principal under Article 1(2) of the Common Provisions for the Teaching and Administrative Staff
2. Submit a judicial appeal before the Organ of First Instance

Please note that appeals concerning an error of assessment relating to the general eligibility criteria are not matters for which the competition's selection board is responsible and shall only be admissible before the Organ of First Instance if an administrative complaint has previously been lodged under article 1, paragraph 2 of the EUI Staff Regulations.

More information on the complaint procedure and on further means of appeal under the EUI's judicial review framework available at:

<https://www.eui.eu/ServicesAndAdmin/PersonnelService/RulesRegulations/Complaints-and-appeals>
