

EUI REMUNERATED TRAINEESHIP OPPORTUNITY

Multimedia Traineeship

The Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies of the European University Institute based in Florence, Italy, is offering a remunerated traineeship for a young professional to join its communication/dissemination team for a maximum period of 12 months.

The traineeship will focus on acquiring skills in the field of video, audio and still image production, and on other communication-related activities aimed to supporting the research carried out at the Centre.

The Schuman Centre

The Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies (RSCAS) is an inter-disciplinary research centre at the heart of the European University Institute (EUI). It was established in 1992 to complement the four EUI disciplinary departments (Economics, History and Civilization, Law, Political and Social Sciences) with the vocation of being involved in both basic and policy research, collaborating with other centres of excellence in Europe, providing opportunities for young scholars and promoting dialogue with the world of practice. The goal of the Centre is to maintain an environment and support structure that fosters intellectual curiosity and excellent research. The research agenda of the Centre is currently guided by three major themes: Integration, Governance and Democracy; Regulating Markets and Governing Money; and 21st Century World Politics and Europe.

The trainee will be part of the Multimedia Team of the Robert Schuman Centre. The team oversees the creation and implementation of the communication and dissemination strategy of the Centre, both for the central level and for the Centre's programmes and projects. The trainee would support the team to produce audio-visual content and for its dissemination.

The position

Under the supervision of the Schuman Centre's Multimedia Specialist, you will mainly carry out the following daily tasks:
