Our Units

The Max Weber Programme \(MWP\) for post-doctoral studies was established in 2006 and is the largest of its kind in Europe, bringing together more than 60 fellows from across the world working in the social and historical sciences. It offers fellows not only the resources to research and publish but also helps them develop the skills needed to become part of the global academic community. The two key features of the MWP are: the multidisciplinary research activities, such as the Interdisciplinary Research Clusters, the Max Weber Lectures and the multidisciplinary workshops; and the academic practice activities, such as the Teaching Certificate, the sessions on publishing an article or a book, media training, and the language support offered for speaking and writing in academic English.

The Academic Service is in charge of providing support, including monitoring and assessment, to the EUI's research and teaching activities. The Academic Service oversees and supports the application, selection, and admission processes of master students, early career researchers (i.e. doctoral and postdoctoral fellows), fellows, and professors.

The Academic Service collaborates with national and international funding authorities and academic and research institutions in the world.

The Academic Service follows and administers the progress of all academic degree programmes at the EUI (Master, Ph.D., postdoctoral) in close collaboration with the EUI academic units, the Dean of Graduate Studies, and the Dean of Postdoctoral Studies (i.e. the Director of the Max Weber Programme).

It offers a wide range of academic skills and professional development courses and career advice to early career researchers; offers language courses; counselling and wellbeing services and supports a wide range of extracurricular activities.

Your Key Responsibilities

Teaching and Learning Officer (MWP)

The Max Weber Programme for Postdoctoral Studies (MWP), is seeking to recruit a Teaching and Learning Officer to coordinate and develop its academic programme.

- Developing and coordinating the academic and professional development programmes for early-career researchers, and managing its day-to-day implementation;
- Developing and managing the skills programmes destined for non-EUI Early-Stage Researchers in the "widening countries";
- Acting as the reference person for all questions related to teaching and learning, and for all activities related to the academic and professional development of Early-Stage Researchers;
- Ensuring close liaison and collaboration with the academic departments and programmes and with the office of the EUI's Dean of Graduate Studies.

Representation/Communication

- Representing the Academic Service internally and externally: organising meetings with stakeholders, attending internal and external meetings upon request by the management, presenting the Early-Stage Researchers skills training offer at the EUI and externally, participating in workshops and conferences;
- Developing networks and creating partnerships with key universities in Social Sciences and Humanities;
- Conducting negotiations with universities and other stakeholders with a focus on the "widening countries";
- Being responsible for the identification of and communication with internal and external collaborators, and acting as a first point of contact.

Policy/Strategy Making

- Contributing to the further development and implementation of the strategy for the academic and professional development of the EUI Researchers and Fellows;
- Providing regularly insights, feedback, statistics & data on this strategy as part of the strategic objectives of the EUI.

Level of autonomy and accountability

- Possessing a high level of autonomy and reporting to the Director of the Academic Service.

Managing people/Role in HR processes

- Being responsible for the identification, selection, supervision and assessment of external collaborators;
- Contributing to staff recruitment, when relevant.

Finance and procurement responsibility

- Supporting procurement processes and drafting contracts and agreements;
- Taking part in tender procedures by preparing calls and participating in evaluation committees for these tenders.

Budget management

- Contributing to planning the budget of the programme, in particular for the activities that fall under the position's responsibilities;
- Preparing and verifying budget estimates and monitoring budget expenses for the activities managed.
