

DECLARATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY

In the performance of their duties, all administrative, teaching staff and trainees of the European University Institute ("EUI") are bound by obligations of professional secrecy and confidentiality. These obligations extend to any information, including personal data, relating to the EUI, its staff members, researchers, and external parties, obtained directly or indirectly in the course of, or in connection with, their functions at the EUI.

I, the undersigned, _____ having the status of _____, hereby acknowledge and confirm that I am subject to the obligations incumbent upon administrative staff, teaching staff, and trainees, including the duties of integrity, discretion and confidentiality.

Accordingly, I undertake:

1. Not to use or disclose, for any purpose whatsoever, any confidential information or personal data obtained during the course of my engagement with the EUI or in connection therewith, except as strictly required for the lawful performance of my duties, or where the information has already been lawfully made public by the EUI or by the data subject concerned.
2. To continue to be bound by this duty of confidentiality both during and after the termination of my engagement with the EUI; and
3. To fully comply with the applicable rules on the protection of personal data in force at the EUI.

Date:

Signature:

Last updated: September 2025